INFORMATION FOR THE WORKING PRESS....

It is a pleasure to present the 1982 University of Alabama football media guide, primarily a working tool for the members of the news media.

In planning your coverage of Alabama's home games, you are urged to review the following items:

WORKING TICKETS: We request that you write early to acquire press credentials for Alabama's home games in Tuscaloosa and Birmingham. If time permits we will mail your tickets. If not, they will be left at a special will-call window. In Tuscaloosa, it is the Gate 3 ticket window next to the press box elevator. In Birmingham, it is Gate 7-A beside the new administrative offices in the South endzone. No children or non-workers are allowed in the press box.

AUBURN GAME: This year is Alabama's year to serve as host for the annual Alabama-Auburn game. Press credentials for this game must be obtained from Jack Perry at Alabama.

FOR PRESS: A seating chart will be posted at the entrance to the working press level to aid you in finding your assigned seat. However, your ticket will have your row and seat number written on it.

TELEPHONES: Writers will find telephones placed every five seat locations in both Tuscaloosa and Birmingham for their use. Anyone desiring to have a telephone installed for their private use certainly may do so by contacting your local telephone company business office and placing the order. We will give the installer your seat location.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Field passes are limited to daily newspapers, wire service photographers and sports magazines.

SERVICES: Complete team and individual statistics, running play-by-play and post-game coaches quotes are provided. Player quotes normally are not furnished.

INTERVIEWS: Coach Bryant will conduct a post-game press conference in the special interview trailer outside the dressing room approximately 10 minutes after each game. The dressing room will be open for player interviews. Our special trailer has built in speakers, a special hookup for tape recorders, TV lights, and a TV platform, with seating for approximately 80 people.

FOOD SERVICE: Once again, Big Al Topazi will serve as the official host for catering the press in the press box. Recognized nationally for his outstanding press box food service, "Big Al" and his crew arrive eight hours prior to the game in order to have everything ready.

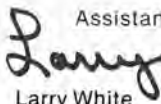

Your hosts for Alabama football are Jack Perry, Larry White and J.D. Rutledge. Please call if you have a particular request or problem.

1982 UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

GENERAL OUTLOOK

Could this be the year Alabama coach Paul "Bear" Bryant has looked for since his last national championship team of 1979? The answer, realistically, is yes, it could be!

Now that the pressure of coach Bryant's 315th career win, which broke Amos Alonzo Stagg's all-time record, is past, the Crimson Tide enters a season that could put it back on top of the collegiate football world.

While the Tide returns a host of senior lettermen, 26 to be exact, most other teams have benefited from the red-shirt rule of several years back as well and are loaded with seasoned performers. But coach Bryant, whose reputation casts him as being one who worries about everything, worries mostly about his own affairs, rather than the opposition's.

When asked at a summer press conference who is his favorite to win the Southeastern Conference title this year, he never hesitated nor blinked an eye when he said, "Why, my favorite is US!"

Bryant points to strengths as "one of great numbers in running backs, good receivers with fine speed and the ability to catch the ball, and an offensive line that COULD produce some fine players." But on the other hand, he also points to the offensive line as a question mark.

"Defensively, we should get great leadership from Tommy Wilcox and Jeremiah Castille in the secondary and our front four will be strong but thin in numbers."

Alabama returns 54 lettermen, 32 on offense, 18 on defense and four kickers. Offensive starters include 10, while defense returns seven.

Biggest news in the Tide camp is another offensive weapon, the I-formation, which will be used along with the old standby, the wishbone. Alabama will remain in its 5-2 defensive scheme.

THE QUARTERBACKS

Walter Lewis, Paul Fields, Ken Coley and Perry Cuda return as the Tide's hope for another outstanding quarterback and it would appear right now that Lewis has the edge. But a lot can happen on the August practice field and the biggest question is whether Coley, a starter last year before injury sidelined him, can return from knee surgery following the regular season finale against Auburn.

Last year, Lewis came along and was the team's total offensive leader with 946 yards, 633 through the air and 313 rushing. He completed 30 of 66 passes that included six touchdowns and led the SEC in passing efficiency, throwing only two interceptions. Coley gained 528 yards, 312 rushing and 216 in the air while completing eight of 14 attempts and two touchdowns. Fields gained 131 yards, 106 in the air while completing four of six attempts and two touchdowns. And it is Fields, according to coach Bryant, who could benefit the most from the inclusion of the I-formation because of his pin-point passing.

A heavy loss at QB is senior Alan Gray, a part-time starter last year who served as a steady influence and who coach Bryant called "the most unselfish player I've ever had."

The Tide roster includes three freshmen quarterbacks who will be given a shot at glory. They are Rodney Jarmon of Florence, Shon Lee of Deatsville, and Todd Wilkins of Jacksonville, Fla.

THE RUNNING BACKS

Alabama will be deeper in running backs than perhaps any team in Bama history, returning its top eight rushers from last year, not counting quarterbacks Lewis and Coley who ranked fifth and sixth. Bruising fullback Ricky Moore, who became the first freshman to lead a Tide team in rushing since freshmen became eligible in the early '70's with 347 yards in 79 carries, a 4.4 average, seems ready to blossom into a star after an outstanding spring in which he showed some devastating power running and blocking. Up to 235 lbs., Moore has quickness that belies his size. Halfbacks Joe Carter and Jeff Fagan return as starters, but a host of others have a shot as well. Carter, a junior, was third in rushing with 331 yards, scoring four TD's. Injuries slowed him somewhat, but a healthy Carter shows lightning speed and power. Fagan, a senior who the staff is counting on for well needed leadership, has the size and speed to become a game-breaker in addition to giving 110 percent on every play. Junior Linnie Patrick was second in rushing despite carrying the ball only 60 times, good for 332 yards, a 5.5 average. Coach Bryant called Patrick "the most talented runner, at times, I've ever been around — if he wants to be part of our group, he could help the team tremendously."

Others include Ken Simon, strong and quick, who could see duty at both half and fullback, after gaining 261 yards and scoring a 51-yard TD against LSU; Paul Ott Carruth, who may be moved to the secondary after gaining 244 yards; Sophomore Mickey Guinyard, a bruising type halfback who gained 146 yards in only 20 carries for a team leading 7.3 average; fullback Earl Collins, 91 yards on 27 carries and fullback Charley Williams, 84 yards on 16 carries. Others include sophomores Craig Turner, Don Horstead, a talented runner who could be a pleasant surprise this year after being named the Spring's Most Improved Back and junior Roosevelt Wilder. Bama signed some very outstanding running talent this year and should gain some mileage from a few freshmen before the season is over.

THE RECEIVERS

The only offensive starter lost to graduation was All-SEC tight end Bart Krout and a battle royal has developed among junior Jay Grogan, senior Larry Brown and giant senior Scott Homan (6-7, 275) and junior Mark Jackson, both of whom were converted in spring practice from defensive tackle and center respectively. Early fall practice will determine who gains the nod.

The Tide is blessed with two star candidates at split end in juniors Jesse Bendross and Joey Jones, who coach Bryant labeled as the best at Bama since All-Americans Ray Perkins and Dennis Homan in the mid-sixties. Bendross caught 13 for 256 yards and five TD's, while Jones caught 12 for 373 yards, a stunning 31.1 average and two TD's. Both have speed to burn and the hands to catch the ball in traffic, and part of the reason that the staff went to the I-formation this year was to utilize the talents of both players at the same time. Senior Darryl White caught two passes for 41 yards and one TD, while senior Keith Marks, who missed last year with injury, could be a factor if he returns to form he displayed in spring work a year ago. Freshman Larry Roberts (6-4, 216) is expected to make a move on the tight end position as well.

THE OFFENSIVE LINE

All five starters return from the offensive line, plus nine other lettermen and some returning youngsters who could make a big push for playing time. The starters include tackles Bob Cayavec, a 1981 All-SEC selection, and honors candidate Joe Beazley, guards Doug Vickers and Mike Adcock and center Steve Mott.

Gaining at least one start last year were guards Gary Bramblett and Jim Brock, while Willard Scissum made rapid improvement during his freshman year. Backup tackles included Kurt Schmissrauter, who missed the last part of the season with a knee injury, Mike McQueen and Roy Rumbley.

The centers include all-star candidate Steve Mott, a senior journeyman, Danny Holcombe and Mark Jackson, who was tried at tight end during spring work.

THE DEFENSIVE LINE

Four starters return but the big problem is replacing graduate middle guard Warren Lyles, an All-SEC performer who played the key role in Bama's defensive success over the past two years. The ends are well manned with seniors All-SEC Mike Pitts and Russ Wood and tackles Jackie Cline, a senior star candidate, and junior Randy Edwards. Other lettermen include ends Anthony Smiley, winner of the spring "headhunter" award and Jimmy Watts, and tackle Richard Shinn. Vying for the middleguard slot are juniors Mike Rodriguez and John Elias, both lettermen from last year, and sophomore Chuck McCall. Rodriguez and Elias both must overcome the injury bug to become an adequate replacement for Lyles, while McCall needs more seasoning to be a serious contender.

"Our defensive front will be strong, but very thin in numbers," said coach Bryant.

THE LINEBACKERS

The Tide has always been noted for its outstanding linebackers, but this could be the season for that position's most severe test in several years. Lost is Thomas Boyd, who was on and off the team last year for various reasons, but two dandies are back - seniors Robbie Jones and Eddie Lowe, both described by coach Bryant as "hard workers who give 110 percent." Lowe missed the Cotton Bowl with a knee injury, but should be back at full strength this fall. Hard hitting Steve Booker is the only other letterman returning, but some outstanding young talent is in the wings, including redshirts Dante Bramblett, Marcus Hill and Scott McRae and non-letterman Roosevelt Hill, who saw action last year. Sophomore Todd Roper has the mark of a future frontliner, but needs more seasoning to reach that plateau. "Hopefully, we'll get some help from our freshmen, but you're whistling Dixie when you think you'll get immediate help from your first-year people," said coach Bryant.

THE DEFENSIVE BACKS

All-America Tommy Wilcox and All-SEC Jeremiah Castille return for their final year and will be depended upon to provide team leadership as well as anchoring a fine secondary. Four other lettermen - Jerrill Sprinkle, Al Blue, Craige Florence and Stan Gay return along with Paul Ott Carruth, who was moved from the offensive backfield. Non-lettermen who saw action last year include Rocky Colburn, Ricky Colbert and Josh Henderson.

"We lost two outstanding players (graduated Benny Perrin and Jim Bob Harris), but we have two great leaders in Wilcox and Castille, so our secondary will be all-right," said coach Bryant.

THE KICKING GAME

All of the Tide's kickers return from last year. Soccer style kicker Peter Kim, who led Tide scoring with 70 points, returns for his final year, junior punter Malcolm Simmons, who led the SEC with a fine 43.9 average, straight-on kicker Terry Sanders and sidewinder Paul Trodd comprise one of the finest kicking units in the country. Kim hit on 15-20 field goals and 25-26 PAT's. Kim twice has kicked four FG's in a game to set a Bama record and owns 27 career FG's for another team record. Sanders, a sophomore who handles kickoff duties, won the Mississippi State game with a field goal and Trodd, a walkon, kicked a pressure FG at Penn State as Bama rolled 31-16.

On the important coverage end of the kicking game, the Tide will have its usual array of speed merchants and hard hitting headhunters. "Our kicking game will be adequate to good," said coach Bryant. "We need to sell the speed game to our kicking game players because it means so much to have fast men involved in that area of your team. You win a lot more games with a good kicking game."

THE FRESHMEN

Alabama signed 21 high school players and all 21 will show up for fall work. A number of freshmen have credentials that give them a good shot at playing time this year. The group includes at least four prep All-Americans and 15 first team All-Staters, including big linemen Jon Hand, 6-7, 280 and David "Hoss" Johnson, 6-5, 255, running back Venson Elder, 6-2, 210 and the fourth rated player in Georgia, and linebacker Wes Neighbors, 6-2, 240. Hand, Johnson and Neighbors are homegrown products.

Three other outstanding linebackers were signed - Joe Godwin (New Brockton, AL), 6-2, 210, Desmond Holoman (Hampton, VA), 6-4, 195 and Derrick Slaughter (Birmingham, AL), 6-0, 222. Another out of stater, 6-2, 240 lb. Cliff Thomas of Pearl, Miss., was rated as one of the top two linemen in Mississippi.

The Tide again recruited to its needs, signing quality athletes who have the ability to switch to positions that will best benefit the team.

Peter Kim, left, the Tide's two-time scoring leader and Malcolm Simmons, right, the 1981 SEC punting champion.

PUNTERS -- Terry Sanders, 6-2, 175, Soph.; and Malcolm Simmons, 6-4, 200, Jr.

PLAYER SKETCHES

CRIMSON TIDE PLAYER SKETCHES

MIKE ADCOCK... Offensive Guard 76

6-3, 245, Junior, 1-VL, Huntsville, Ala.

Mike started every game for Alabama last fall, and although he missed spring practice due to an ankle injury, he is expected to be a fixture on the Tide line again this season. As a freshman, Mike, who generally plays on the left side of the line, participated in five varsity contests. He was a three-year All-City performer for Coach John Inman at Johnson High School in Huntsville, and earned All-State accolades his senior year, when he served as team captain for the Jaguars who advanced to the semi-finals of the state 4A playoffs. He was once named Huntsville's "Offensive Player of the Week", a rare honor for a lineman. He was also a three-year letterman in high school baseball. Born: 1-14-62.

JOE BEAZLEY... Offensive Tackle 70

6-5, 252, Senior, 3-VL, Woodbridge, Va.

After starting his career as a defensive tackle at 'Bama, Joe was switched to the offensive line during his sophomore year. He became a starter for the Tide's last four games of 1980, including the Cotton Bowl, picked up the Paul Crane Most Improved Offensive Lineman Award for his work in the spring of 1981, and became an all-star candidate with his play in the Tide offensive line last year. He is one of a record ten players with a chance to become a four-year letterman this fall. As a prepster, Joe earned All-America honors for Coach Bill Holtzclaw at Woodbridge Academy, located in a suburb of Washington, D.C. He was honored by the Washington Touchdown Club as suburban Virginia Player of the Year as a senior, and he lead his teams to a three-year record of 36-6-1. Joe also lettered as a weightman in track. His sister, Donna, played basketball at Old Dominion. Born: 1-21-60.

JESSE BENDROSS... Wide Receiver 88

6-1, 185, Junior, 2-VL, Hollywood, Fla.

Jesse has the potential to be one of the all-time top receivers at Alabama, and he showed it late in 1981, when his play in key games against Penn State and Auburn established him as an all-star candidate for '82. He scored four touchdowns in those two nationally-televvised contests, two in each game, and was honored as ABC-TV's Player of the Game against Auburn in Coach Bryant's historic 315th win. Overall, Jesse was Alabama's top receiver with 13 catches for 256 yards, a 19.7 average, and five touchdowns, including one against Tennessee. Jesse missed last year's Georgia Tech game with injuries, and, surprisingly, started only four games, although he was considered a "co-starter" with fellow wideout Joey Jones, who shared the position. He started eight games as a freshman. Jesse was a high school All-America for Coach Joe Buchinski at Miramar High School, where he caught 18 TD passes as a junior and senior and set most of the school receiving records. He also ran track, including a 10.1 100-yard dash. 'Bama halfback Jeff Fagan also played at Miramar, a year ahead of Jesse. Born: 5-19-61.

AL BLUE... Defensive Back 34

6-2, 194, Junior, 1-VL, Maitland, Fla.

After injuries dictated a redshirt year in 1980, Al bounced back to play in eight games last year, starting against Kentucky and Vanderbilt. In all, Al, who has a reputation as a hard hitter, made nine tackles, broke up three passes, and grabbed one interception, which he returned 34 yards, and should be one of a number of players in close contention for one of the open spots in the Alabama secondary this fall. He also saw action in two varsity games during his freshman season (1979), making two tackles and intercepting one pass. As a prep player at Edgewater High School under Coach Bob Dolce, Al was a three-year starter and earned All-State and All-

America recognition his senior year, primarily for his defensive prowess, although he also played split end on offense. He was also one of Central Florida's top basketball players. Born: 2-27-61.

STEVE BOOKER... Linebacker 49

6-2, 212, Junior, 1-VL, Huntsville, Ala.

Steve was primarily a back up to strongside linebacker Robbie Jones last year, although that role provided him with plenty of playing time as he was rotated in to rest both starting linebackers, and it also thrust him into a starting role in the Cotton Bowl against Texas. This year, he is expected to be the No. 1 reserve behind Jones and Eddie Lowe. Steve, who has good straight-ahead speed and excellent hitting ability, was 10th on the team with 43 total tackles last year, including six on kickoffs. He played in five varsity games as a freshman, totaling four tackles, and was the leading tackler on the 1980 junior varsity. Steve was a highly-recruited star at Butler High School for Coach John Childress, averaging seventeen tackles a game as a high school senior. He also played at running back, where he rushed for 134 yards in one game, and competed for the wrestling and track teams. Born: 5-10-62.

DANTE BRAMBLETT... Linebacker 85

6-3, 215, Sophomore, Sq., Morrow, Ga.

Dante sat out last year as a redshirt and this spring was switched from defensive end to a linebacker position, where there should be more opportunity for him to see playing time. Dante played well in the A-Day Game this spring, making five solo tackles. As a freshman, he saw only jayvee action. Dante played his high school ball for Coach Charlie Brown at Forest Park High in Morrow, a suburb of Atlanta. He was Quad-A All-State and Clayton County Defensive Player of the Year after averaging 13 tackles a game as a senior. Dante had a single-game high of 22 stops. He was also the team punter, averaging 38 yards a kick, and threw the shot and discus in track. Born: 10-4-62.

GARY BRAMBLETT . . . Offensive Guard 68

6-2, 252, Senior, 3-VL, Dalton, Ga.

A two-time Academic All-SEC selection and a three-year letterman, Gary should see plenty of time on the Tide offensive wall after spend-most of last year with the first and second units. He played in 10 of the Tide games last year after seeing action in all 12 as a soph. An avid weightlifter, Gary also won the Jerry Duncan I Like To Practice Award for his attitude in spring training 1980. Playing for Coach Bill Chappell at perennially strong Dalton High, Gary lettered for three years, mainly as a defensive tackle, on teams that compiled a 33-8 record. He was all-city, All-State, and All-Metro (Chattanooga) and was selected to participate in the Georgia All-Star Game. He was also a top high school shot putter. Born: 7-23-60.

JIM BROCK . . . Offensive Tackle 66

6-2, 240, Junior, 1-VL, Montgomery, Ala.

Jim made the Alabama squad the hard way--as a walk-on--but played enough with the varsity last year to earn a letter, in addition to playing with the junior varsity. Jim's brother, Mike, made the Tide squad the same way and went on to become one of the starters for Alabama's 1979 National Champions and part of a unit that many feel was the top offensive lines in Tide history. In addition to brother Mike, Jim's father played collegiately at Virginia Tech and an uncle played at Auburn. Jim played high school football for Coach Billy Livings at Jeff Davis High School, where he was an offensive tackle for three years. In that time, Jeff Davis was 33-3-1 and won the state 4A championship in 1978. Jim captained the team in 1979 and was a teammate of Alabama noseguard Chuck McCall. Born: 3-11-61.

JOHNNY BROOKER . . . Kicking Specialist 50

6-1, 205, Senior, Sq., Demopolis, Ala.

Johnny serves the Tide special teams in two capacities, acting both as a reserve kicker and as a back-up to snapper Danny Holcombe. The nephew of former Alabama standout Tommy Brooker, Johnny won most valuable player honors in the 1980 A-Day Game by kicking a pair of field goals that proved to be the winning margin in the game. Johnny has also seen some varsity action for the Crimson Tide, primarily on the kickoff teams, in addition to kicking for the junior varsity. Johnny played for Coach Fred Schoenrock at Demopolis High School, where he was a fullback and linebacker as well as a placekicker. He earned honorable-mention All-State honors in Class 3A and kicked three game winning field goals that year. Born: 10-30-59.

BILL BROWN . . . Defensive Back

6-1, 190, Senior, Sq., DeKalb, Miss.

Bill is another walk-on player who has worked his way onto the Tide squad, and he is expected to provide depth in the Alabama secondary this year. Bill played in two varsity contests last year, and was third leading tackler for the Alabama junior varsity. He also made the Cotton Bowl travel squad. Bill played for Coach Billy Brown--his father--at West Kemper High School, where he was an all-conference quarterback and played in the Mississippi High School All-Star Game. His father played collegiately at Livingston U., and Bill's brother, Bud, is a defensive back for Southern Miss. Born: 6-16-59.

LARRY BROWN . . . Tight End 83
6-3, 234, Senior, 3-VL, Pembroke Pines, Fla.

One of the candidates to replace All-SEC Bart Krout, Larry has been a tight end for three years at Alabama, but has been used primarily as a blocker, particularly in short yardage situations. He played some offensive tackle as a freshman and sophomore, but was strictly an end last year, when he appeared in all 12 Tide games. Surprisingly, he has yet to catch a pass in his career. In high school, Larry was a tight end on offense and a tackle on defense for Coach Steve Spradling at McArthur High, averaging three receptions and eight tackles per game, and earning All-City honors in the Miami area as a junior and senior. He also lettered in baseball and basketball. His father, Laurence Brown, Jr., played collegiately at Southern Mississippi. Born: 4-12-61.

PAUL OTT CARRUTH . . . Running Back/Defensive Back 16
6-1, 210, Junior, 1-VL, Summit, Miss.

Paul was the starting left halfback for the Alabama offense last year, but Coach Bryant shifted him to the secondary in the spring. Unfortunately, Paul was injured through much of the off-season and did not get a chance to work at the position as much as the 'Bama coaches would like. He is an outstanding athlete, however, and could play on either side of the ball this fall. Last year, he rushed 64 times for 244 yards and one touchdown, a 2-yarder against Penn State. He was also a good blocker and a threat to pass of the option. His best single game was against Penn State, when he gained 64 yards on 14 carries. As a high schooler, he was one of the South's most sought-after prepsters under Coach Larry Kinslow, playing quarterback and tailback. He rushed for over 1,500 yards on 152 carries his senior year, when he earned All-America honors. He also won the "Spirit of America Foundation" Gold Medal as the American high school senior whose athletic, scholastic, and citizenship qualities best typify the All-American spirit and character. Born: 7-12-61.

JOE CARTER . . . Running Back 46
5-11, 192, Junior, 2-VL, Starkville, Miss.

Joe came into his own as a runner last year, starting seven games for the Tide at right halfback and finishing as the No. 3 rusher on the team with 331 yards on 59 carries. His 5.6 average per rush was also the best among the team regulars. He scored four touchdowns on short runs last year, and also had the Tide's longest run from scrimmage of the season, a 69-yard jaunt against Tennessee. The Vol game was the best of the year for Joe, who gained 97 yards on eight carries, all in the first half. Joe established himself as a front-line back in the 1980 Cotton Bowl when he gained 71 yards against Baylor, including a 56 yard touchdown. He is probably, along with Ken Simon, among the fastest of the Alabama backs, with a 9.5 clocking in the 100-yard dash to his credit. Joe also has excellent upper-body strength. He rushed for over 3,000 yards in high school career under Coach Dave Owens at Starkville High, where he was All-State and earned MVP honors in the state All-Star Game. He also lettered three years in track. Born: 6-23-62.

JEREMIAH CASTILLE... Defensive Back 19

5-11, 177, Senior, 3-VL, Phenix City, Ala.

Coach Bryant last year said that Jeremiah was "pound for pound, the best player in the SEC." The hard-hitting cornerback earned such praise by leading the conference in interceptions with 5 for 101 yards, and earned AP All-SEC and honorable mention All-America recognition despite sharing the limelight with all-star secondary mates Tommy Wilcox and Jim Bob Harris. Jeremiah also had five interceptions his sophomore year, as well as two against Baylor in the Cotton Bowl. He has the knack for making the play and made two of the memorable game-saving tackles in recent 'Bama history: as a freshman, when he pulled down Auburn's James Brooks from behind on a 64-yard kickoff return to preserve a 25-18 Alabama win, and last year against Mississippi State, when he stopped Bulldog tight end Danny Knight short of the Alabama end zone on a long pass play as 'Bama held on to a 13-10 win. Overall, Jeremiah led the team in tackles against the pass, was second in passes broken up and was tenth with 43 total tackles. He also blocked one kick, and against Vanderbilt as a soph, he scored on a blocked punt after running 43 yards. He also returned 5 kickoffs for a 24.6 average last year, best on the team. Jeremiah was voted the Bobby Johns award as Alabama's most improved defensive back in 1980. In high school, Jeremiah was bi-city player of the year (Phenix City-Columbus, Ga.) for Coach Wayne Trawick, rushing for 862 yards and intercepting six passes. He twice led Phenix City Central to the State 4A playoffs. Born: 1-15-61.

BOB CAYAVEC... Offensive Tackle 71

6-2, 252, Senior, 2-VL, Largo, Fla.

Bob started most of the year for Alabama last year and was outstanding, earning All-SEC honors, but he missed the final two games of the year and had to fight his way back into the regular lineup this spring. He has excellent work habits, however, he won the Jerry Duncan I Like To Practice Award in Spring, 1980, and will be counted on in the Alabama line this fall. Bob found a home at the tackle position after also being worked as a tight end and defensive noseguard in his Alabama career. In high school, he played tight end and defensive tackle for Coach Don Stowers at Largo High and led his team to a 27-3 record over three years. He also lettered twice in baseball, and was captain of the football team his senior year. Born: 7-9-60.

JACKIE CLINE... Defensive Tackle 98

6-5, 274, Senior, 2-VL, McCalla, Ala.

Jackie became the first Alabama player in history to receive one of the coveted coaches' spring awards three times when he was named as the winner of the Billy Neighbors Most Improved Defensive Lineman Award for the third straight year. Since he had an outstanding year in 1981, such improvement should make him a legitimate All-SEC and All-America candidate this year. Last year, he led Alabama's interior linemen with 55 tackles, including three sacks, caused two fumbles and recovered two, and blocked a Jim Arnold punt for a safety against Vanderbilt. As a junior, the big youngster, had 54 tackles, including a team-high eight sacks for 49 yards in losses. He should be the senior leader for Coach Ken Donahue's defensive linemen this fall. Jackie palyed for former Alabama All-America Bobby Johns at McAdory High School, doubling in as a defensive tackle and an offensive guard. He also earned three letters in basketball and two in track. Born: 3-13-60.

RICKY COLBERT . . . Defensive Back 13

6-1, 190, Sophomore, Sq., Atmore, Ala.

Ricky played in three varsity games last year, including the Cotton Bowl, and was one of the top players for the Alabama junior varsity as well. He is expected to understudy All-American Tommy Wilcox this season, gaining valuable experience. Last year, he had two unassisted tackles, both as a member of Alabama's kickoff team, where he was a valuable asset. In high school, Ricky was a Class 4A All-State player for Coach Buck Powell, playing three years at linebacker and captaining the team as a senior. He also lettered two years in baseball, two in track, and one in tennis for Escambia County High, the same school that sent Alabama stars Lou Ikner and current Miami Dolphin defensive back Don McNeal. Born: 12-28-62.

ROCKY COLBURN . . . Defensive Back 33

5-11, 177, Sophomore, Sq., Cantonment, Fla.

Rocky was named the Most Improved Defensive Back on the Alabama team this spring and goes into the season listed as Number One on the Tide depth charts at free safety. He played in four games last year, missing part of the season with an injury, and impressed Tide coaches with his intelligent play. Alabama "discovered" Rocky when they were watching another player from Tate High School, the 1980 Florida State champions. "We were watching this other player and we kept seeing Rocky making tackles, breaking up passes, and making a lot of smart plays. So we requested some other films and he was doing the same thing every game," said a Tide assistant. He was also a straight A-student at Tate, where he played for Coach Carl Madison, earning honorable mention All-State accolades. Rocky made two tackles last season, but played excellent pass defense. His father, Frank Colburn, played football at Oregon College. Born: 5-24-63.

KEN COLEY . . . Quarterback 11

5-11, 185, Senior, 3-VL, Birmingham, Ala.

Ken has been a standout at three tough positions--quarterback, defensive back, and punt returner--during his career at Alabama, but has always been plagued by injuries that have kept him from fulfilling his potential. First, as a freshman, he was one of the nation's punt return leaders, averaging 10.6 yards a return, but suffered a knee injury against Tennessee and missed the rest of the season. After rehabilitating, he moved to quarterback the next year (in fact, he played quarterback, defensive back, and worked on the kicking team at times in the Tennessee game of 1980), but, in his first start against LSU, injured a motor nerve in his hand after leading the team to an opening-drive touchdown and missed the rest of the year. He started the year out with a bang in 1981, leading Alabama to a nationally televised win over LSU by rushing for 108 yards--the best by a Bama back last year--and earning ABC-TV player of the game honors, but he later punctured a lung against Ole Miss, missing two games and part of a third, and then re-injured his knee, causing him to miss spring work. Ken could return to the lineup as either a quarterback or a defensive back this fall. His statistics last year were 322 yards rushing, 216 yards and two TDs passing, including an 81-yarder to Joey Jones, third longest in Tide history. He was one of six Alabama ballcarriers to go over the 300 yard mark last year. Ken was a "Super 11" and All-State player for Coach Bobby Johns at Erwin High School, throwing for 1,056 yards and running for 797 as a senior. His father, Billy, was a quarterback at Livingston University, while a brother, Bob, played baseball at Alabama-Birmingham. Born: 1-24-61.

EARL COLLINS...Tight End-Fullback 37

6-3, 218, Senior, 2-VL, Mobile, Ala.

Earl was originally a tight end at Alabama, then moved to fullback at the end of 1980 when a rash of injuries depleted the Tide at that position. The situation reversed itself at the end of 1981, when Alabama was deep in fullbacks but short on tight ends, so Earl was moved back to his original position this spring. He played in every game at fullback last year, carrying the ball 27 times for 91 yards, but never got a chance to show his excellent breakaway speed, with no run for more than 10 yards. In his first game at the position, against Auburn in 1980, Earl had a 46-yard touchdown run. He missed part of 1981 when he was injured against Rutgers. The injury was first diagnosed as a broken neck, but it was later discovered to be an abnormality that had been present since birth and Earl missed only two games. Earl was a two-time all-region running back for Coach David Calhoun at Davidson High School, where he rushed for 1107 yards as a junior and 851 more as a senior. He also started for two years on the basketball team. Born: 11-25-60.

PERRY CUDA...Quarterback 18

6-2, 192, Sophomore, Sq., Summerville, S.C.

A Parade All-America in high school, Perry was one of three Tide quarterbacks--along with Walter Lewis and Paul Fields--to receive intensive scrutiny from the Tide coaching staff in the spring, and he should see action in the fall which will enable him to gain the valuable experience that he needs to become a fine quarterback. Perry played primarily with the junior varsity last year, leading the team with 5 of 8 passing for 61 yards. He rushed for 69 more on the primarily ground-oriented team. He also had a good showing in this year's A-Day Game, completing 5 of 7 passes for 38 yards, and in other spring scrimmages. In high school, Perry, in addition to his All-America honors, was a two-time all-state performer as he led Summerville High to a four-year record of 55-3. In his last two seasons, he threw for over 2,900 yards and rushed for 400 more. He also was a four year baseball letterman, and his father, Frank, played collegiate baseball at the University of Miami. Born: 8-18-62.

JOE DISMUKE . . . Offensive Guard 67

6-2, 270, Sophomore, Sq., Gadsden, Ala.

Joe started the spring listed far down the depth chart as Alabama returned both of their top two offensive lines, but he surprised nearly all observers with his hard work and desire, and by the end of the spring he had played himself onto the top units and, along the way, had picked up the Billy Neighbors Award as Alabama's most improved offensive lineman in the spring. Joe has excellent upper-body strength and has worked hard to master blocking technique, and it should pay off this fall. He played primarily for the junior varsity last year, although he did make the Cotton Bowl trip. He came to 'Bama from Southside High School, where he earned Class 3A All-State honors for Coach Randy Ross' 10-0 team in 1980. Joe was a two-way tackle, and he also lettered four years in track and twice in basketball. Born: 11-8-62.

RANDY EDWARDS . . . Defensive Tackle 96

6-4, 252, Junior, 2-VL, Marietta, Ga.

Randy stepped in and filled the shoes of Byron Braggs as Alabama's starting left defensive tackle last year, and should be one of the mainstays of the veteran Tide front wall in 1982. He started every game in 1981 after playing in 10 contests as a freshman, when he was a back-up at both defensive tackle and nose guard. Last year, he had 45 total tackles, ninth on the team, including one for a five yard loss. Randy came to Alabama as a high school All-American, but he had to sit out a season after contracting a rare kidney disease--glomeruli nephritis, or a calcium deposit in the kidney--and there were times when it appeared his football career was over. His weight dropped from 240 to 208 in the layoff, but a special weight program designed by the Alabama coaches enabled him to return as a stellar lineman. He played high school football for Coach Corky Kell at Wheeler High, where he was also voted the Atlanta area's top field performer for his shot and discus performances. Born: 3-9-61.

JOHN ELIAS . . . Middle Guard 95

6-2, 239, Junior, 1-VL, Columbus, Ga.

John played in every game in 1981 as the primary backup, along with Mike Rodriguez, to 'Bama's all-star middle guard Warren Lyles, and he is expected to fulfill the same role this year as the man behind Rodriguez in the middle of the Alabama defense. John made 15 tackles last year, all against the run, including one sack for an eight-yard loss. John weighed only 217 pounds when he came to Alabama, but he has gradually built up his weight and upper body strength over his career and is now physically suited for the middle guard spot. He played in two varsity games in 1980, but was injured against Vanderbilt and missed the remainder of the season. John played for Coach Alvin (Pig) Davis at Columbus High, where he was a defensive standout who played in the Georgia High School All-Star Game. He made 90 individual tackles and blocked four punts as a senior. John lettered three years in football and one in basketball for Columbus. Born: 8-25-61.

JEFF FAGAN...Running Back 35

6-1, 200, Senior, 3-VL, Hollywood, Fla.

A versatile back with the size, speed, and receiving ability that all football coaches look for, Jeff needs only to overcome nagging injuries to fulfill his potential. Last year, he was the No. 4 rusher on the Tide team with 325 yards and 4 touchdowns on 71 carries, despite missing one entire game and parts of two others due to injury. He also caught 5 passes for 109 yards, best of any Alabama back in '81. He led Alabama rushers against Vanderbilt with 12 carries for 55 yards and 1 score. As a sophomore, Jeff carried only 10 times but gained 116 yards, an eye-catching 11.6 per carry, and scored twice, including a 41-yard run against Vanderbilt. Jeff's career total of 507 yards is third among active Alabama backs. He played for Coach Jim Scroggins at Miramar High School, where he was a teammate of current Tide end Jesse Bendross. He was South Broward County Player of the Year as a senior when he rushed for 1,107 yards. He also lettered two years in track, where he was a top quartermiler. Born: 6-7-61.

CHARLES FIELDS...Running Back/Defensive Back 36

6-1, 193, Junior, Sq., Linden, Ala.

Charles was one of several players who shifted positions in this year's spring training as Alabama coaches looked at him both as a defensive back, where he has performed on the junior varsity level for the past two seasons, and as a halfback, although an ankle injury limited the amount of work that he got at his new position. Fields came to Alabama from Marengo Academy in Linden, where he played quarterback for Coach Ricky Herzog, passing for 1,370 yards to lead the Longhorns to an undefeated season. He also starred in baseball and basketball and was named to the All-State Private School Team in all three sports. Born: 9-14-61.

PAUL FIELDS...Quarterback 1

6-0, 195, Junior, Sq., Gardendale, Ala.

A strong-armed youngster who goes into the 1982 season listed as the No. 2 quarterback for the Tide behind returning starter Walter Lewis, Paul had a good spring and is really being counted on by the Alabama staff. Paul played in five games last year, completing four of six passes for 106 yards and two touchdowns, a 44-yard score to Mark Nix against LSU and a 53-yard bomb to Tim Clark against Rutgers. Paul also rushed for 25 yards. He was the leading rusher on the 1980 Tide JVs, with 189 yards on 37 carries. He had 226 yards total offense in the Junior Tide's win over the Auburn JV's in 1980. Paul was a two-time Class 3A All-State quarterback for Coach Ed Bruce's Gardendale Jets, even though he was injured for much of his senior year. He had over 2,000 yards total offense in just 15 games as a junior and senior. He was also a three-year letterman in baseball and basketball, and was a team captain in all three sports. Born: 2-7-62.

CRAIGE FLORENCE... Defensive Back 17

5-11, 175, Sophomore, 1-VL, Enterprise, Ala.

Craig played enough as a freshman last year to earn a letter, and he should be one of the prime contenders for a secondary spot this year. A hard hitter, Craig had seven tackles in 1981, broke up two enemy passes, and picked off another, against Rutgers. He has good speed and excellent defensive instincts as well. Craig played his high school football for 1979 state 4A champion Enterprise, under Coach Bill Bacon, where he was a teammate of current Alabama offensive lineman Doug Vickers. He played both safety and wide receiver at Enterprise, and caught 10 touchdown passes his senior year. He also scored the eventual game-winning TD in the 1979 state championship game. Born: 3-13-63.

STAN GAY... Defensive Back 28

5-11, 175, Senior, 1-VL, Tuskegee, Ala.

Stan was a member of Alabama's second set of defensive backs for most of the season, usually filling in for one of the cornerbacks. He finished the year with 11 tackles, 5 of them against the pass, while playing in 11 games, and he will be one of many looking to crack the starting lineup in the fall. Stan earned his way onto the Tide team, walking on after transferring from Tuskegee Institute, where he spent one year, and earning a scholarship. He played high school football for Coach McDonald Arrington at Tuskegee Institute High, where he was an honor student as well as a three-sport letterman. Stan is one of 12 children. Born: 12-6-60.

TOMMY GIBSON... Offensive Tackle

6-4, 250, Sophomore, Sq., Mobile, Ala.

Tommy participated only on the junior varsity level last season, where he graded very well, but his bid to move up on the Alabama depth chart this spring was curtailed by injuries. He is still maturing physically and could be redshirted at some point in his career. Tommy was a two-way tackle for Coach Charly Leverette at Shaw High School in Mobile, where he earned all-region and honorable mention all-state honors, as well as serving as team captain. Born: 7-30-63.

DAVID GILMER... Defensive Tackle 91

6-5, 242, Freshman, Attalla, Ala.

Generally regarded as one of the top five prep prospects in Alabama during the 1980 recruiting season, David was unable to participate for the Tide due to medical reasons, and will enter his freshman year of eligibility this year after working with the team in the spring. A strong youngster who should provide depth in the defensive line. He was a four year letterman for Coach Buddy Hearn at Etowah High School, where he played every position on the offensive and defensive line, in addition to seeing some action at fullback, where he once had a 150-yard game. He was named to most prep All-America teams in addition to winning all-state honors. Born: 10-18-61.

RUSTY GRIMMETT . . . Defensive End

6-2, 215, Freshman, Stone Mountain, Ga.

Rusty transferred to Alabama at the beginning of the 1982 winter semester and was thus able to participate in spring work while still maintaining freshman status in eligibility. He came to the Tide from Tennessee Military Institute where he enrolled after graduating from Stone Mountain High School. Rusty entered TMI in order to build up his weight and strength so he could earn an SEC scholarship, which he did. He helped TMI to an 8-2 record last year against good competition, including some JV teams from the SEC. Rusty was an all-region performer at Stone Mountain before entering TMI, playing guard and linebacker.

JAY GROGAN . . . Tight End 27

6-2, 220, 1-VL, Cropwell

Jay was the top backup to Bart Krout as the tight end position last year, and will probably be one of the top candidates to inherit the job this fall, although there is expected to be a fight for the starting nod. Jay played in most of the Tide games last year, although he did not have a pass reception. He was the No. 2 pass catcher, behind Joey Jones, on the 1980 junior varsity squad, making 5 catches for 68 yards. In high school, Jay played for Coach Brian Ellard at Pel City High, where he was a fullback on offense and a linebacker and leading tackler on defense. His father, Gerald, played college baseball at Jacksonville State, and Jay was also a fine baseball player in high school. Born: 3-26-62.

MICKEY GUINYARD . . . Running Back 24

6-0, 210, Sophomore, 1-VL, Atlanta, Ga.

A strong, straight-ahead runner, Mickey showed great promise in his first season, rushing for 146 yards on just 20 carries, a team-high average of 7.3 per attempt. His best outing of the season came against a strong Mississippi State team, when he carried five times, all in the second half, for 44 crucial yards. He also caught two passes last year for a total of 29 yards. Mickey was a two-time Class AA All-State running back at Westwood High of Atlanta, where he rushed for 3,288 yards in his career. His father, who played professionally for the New York Giants after a football career at Bishop College, visited the six schools that Mickey was considering incognito, and was most impressed with Alabama. Mickey's full name is Curtis Daryl Guinyard. Born: 10-23-63.

JOSH HENDERSON . . . Defensive Back 40

6-0, 190, Senior, Sq., Panama City, Fla.

Josh played the entire season on the varsity squad last year after splitting time between the varsity and the JVs in 1979 and 1980. He made seven tackles last year, including five as a member of the Tide's specialty unit, after making nine stops in varsity action as a sophomore. Josh is primarily a cornerback, and should see time there again this fall. Josh was a high-school All-American for Coach John Cobb at Bay City High, where he helped lead the team to a state championship in his junior season. He played primarily as a defensive back, and also captained the team. He was also a two-year basketball letterman. Born: 4-22-59.

MARCUS HILL . . . Linebacker
6-2, 210, Sophomore, Sq., Dothan, Ala.

Marcus missed the entire 1980 season due to a knee injury suffered in the Alabama High School All-Star Game, then sat out 1981 as a redshirt in order to make up for the lost year of practice experience. He did work in the spring, however, and made five stops in the A-Day Game. Marcus came to Alabama with a fine high school career under his belt, and was generally regarded as one of the state's Top 10 prospects in 1979. He played for Coach Phillip Creel at Dothan High School, where he averaged 19 tackles per game on the way to earning All-State laurels, as well as winning the Dothan Area Player of the Year Award. Born: 3-8-61.

ROOSEVELT HILL . . . Linebacker 56
6-2, 205, Junior, Sq., Newnan, Ga.

Roosevelt played linebacker in seven varsity games last year, including the Cotton Bowl, and was credited with eight tackles, all unassisted. He sat out the 1980 season as a redshirt after spending 1979 as a starting linebacker on the Alabama junior varsity, averaging seven tackles per game in JV competition. Roosevelt also came on well this spring and should provide depth in the Alabama linebacking corps. Roosevelt played at Newnan High School, which also produced former split end Tim Clark, under Coach Max Bass, where he earned all-region honors as a linebacker and tight end. His cousin, Drew Hill, had a distinguished career at Georgia Tech. Born: 7-27-61.

DANNY HOLCOMBE . . . Center 65
6-2, 237, Senior, 2-VL, Marietta, Ga.

Danny, along with Mark Jackson, provide the depth behind All-SEC center Steve Mott, but he is also very valuable to the team as the snapper for Alabama placekickers, where his execution has been flawless for two straight seasons. He also sees some duty at offensive guard, but concentrated primarily on being a snap specialist in 1981. He was the No. 1 center for much of spring practice, with Mott out due to an injury. Danny played at Marietta Wheeler High for Coach Corky Kell, where he played on the same line with current Alabama star Randy Edwards. Danny earned all-metro honors, however, playing offensive tackle and defensive end. Born: 7-6-61.

SCOTT HOMAN . . . Tight End/Defensive Tackle 93
6-7, 275, Senior, 3-VL, Elkhart, Ind.

One of the most eagerly observed experiments of this year's spring practice in Tuscaloosa was the attempt to convert Scott, one of the largest players on the Tide team, from defensive tackle to tight end and he responded well, even though he had been away from the position for five years, since he was a junior in high school. Scott does have good speed for a man his size and could be a real surprise if his receiving ability is up to par. As a defensive tackle for three years, Scott played behind some of the best, and even started two games as a sophomore before a broken toe took him out of the line. He accumulated 28 tackles in his career, including seven last season, 11 as a sophomore, and 10 as a freshman. As a high schooler for Coach Tom Kurth at Elkhart Central, the same school that sent former running back Mike Stock to the Tide, Scott was an all-state tackle, earning most valuable defensive player honors in the Indiana all-star game, and lettered in wrestling and track. Scott's brother, Bob, played collegiately at Manchester College. Born: 6-27-60.

SAMMY HOOD... Defensive Back 43

5-11, 170, Sophomore, Sq., Ider, Ala.

One of four freshman defensive backs to make a significant contribution to the Alabama secondary last year, Sammy should log plenty of time again this year after missing part of the season due to injury in 1981. Sammy was in on two tackles last year, and also made 10 tackles as a member of the Tide JVs. Sammy came to Alabama from Ider High School, where he was an all-region and honorable mention 2A all-state quarterback for Coach Jimmy Allday. He rushed and passed for almost 2,000 yards as a senior. Sammy also lettered three years in basketball and baseball. Born: 5-9-63.

DON HORSTEAD... Running Back 39

5-10, 213, Sophomore, Sq., Elba, Ala.

Selected by the Tide coaches as the winner of the Johnny Musso Most Improved Offensive Back Award this spring, Don was impressive throughout the practices for his strength and running ability. He played in two junior varsity games last year, scoring two touchdowns, but was injured for part of the season. He is expected to play primarily with the varsity this season. Don was one of the top prep runners in Alabama in 1980, playing for Coach Mack Wood, father of 'Bama defensive end Russ Wood. Don ran for 1,567 yards and 21 touchdowns as a senior, including a 5 touchdown explosion against Luverne. He was Super All-State and one of the Ten Most Wanted prospects as selected by the Birmingham Post-Herald. Born: 8-6-62.

JIM IVY... Offensive Tackle 74

6-4, 270, Sophomore, Sq., Birmingham, Ala.

Big and strong, Jim saw action in one varsity game, against Ole Miss in 1980, then sat out the 1981 season as a redshirt, after being sidelined for much of 1980 by injury. Jim has the potential to be a fine offensive tackle for the Tide, and should work with the back-up unit this fall. Jim was an all-region and all-state performer at Huffman High, under the tutelage of Coach Jerry Partridge, and he was also a slugging first baseman for Coach Phil English's Vikings, a perennial state baseball power. Born: 10-6-61.

MARK JACKSON... Center 55

6-4, 250, Junior, 1-VL, Houston, Tex.

Mark lettered last season as the back-up center for the Tide, but split time this spring between his usual position and tight end, where Alabama coaches tested several players in an effort to add depth this year. Mark did well, but is expected to return to the center spot this fall. Mark played in eight Alabama games last year, and also in the Cotton Bowl. He played in only one varsity game as a freshman, but is developing into a fine offensive blocker. Mark was a first-team All-State performer for Coach Bill Matysiak at Houston's Madison High, where he was a two-way tackle. He lettered three years in football and one in track at Madison. Mark's brother, Jonathan, has transferred to Alabama after spending his freshman year at Texas, and looks to join his brother on the Tide team in 1983. Born: 12-12-61.

JOEY JONES... Wide Receiver 4

5-9, 165, Junior, 2-VL, Mobile, Ala.

Along with co-starter at split end Jesse Bendross, Joey gives Alabama its best 1-2 punch at the wideout positions since the tandem of Dennis Homan and Ray Perkins played in the 1960's. In fact, Alabama practiced out of the I-formation in the spring of '82, largely to allow these two into the lineup at the same time. Joey caught only 12 passes last year, but went for 373 yards, an astounding 31.2 yard per catch average. He had two scores, an 81-yarder against Vanderbilt, third longest in Alabama records, and a 47-yarder against Georgia Tech. Joey also returned 5 kickoffs for 114 yards, a 22.8 average, and set a Cotton Bowl record with a 62-yard runback against Texas. He was also the Tide's main punt returner with 29 for 128 yards, a 4.4 average, and he rushed twice for 3 yards, making his all-purpose total 618 yards. He was the fastest Alabama player in spring clockings of the 40-yard dash, and ran an electronically timed 4.42 in high school. He played for Coach Robert Shaw at Murphy High where he lettered in four sports and won first-team All-State honors. Joey had 32 catches for 704 yards as a senior, when he also played free safety, and was named Mobile Trackster of the Year. His uncle, Earl (Bama) Smith, played at Texas A & M. Born: 10-29-62.

ROBBIE JONES... Linebacker 97

6-3, 230, Senior, 3-VL, Demopolis, Ala.

The leading tackler for the Tide in 1981 with 107 stops, Robbie should be a strong candidate for all-star recognition in his senior year as he comes from under the shadow of two-time All-SECer Thomas Boyd. Robbie was the Tide's top individual tackler in five games last year, with a high of 15 stops against Ole Miss and a 14-tackle performance against Auburn. He also had five sacks for sixteen yards in losses, intercepted one pass, broke up three passes, caused one fumble and recovered two. Robbie, a good student who has made a television promotional message for the University's College of Engineering, is also the Tide's defensive "quarterback", calling the defensive signals for Alabama. Robbie was considered a "co-starter" in 1980, when he shared time with Boyd and Randy Scott, both currently with the NFL Green Bay Packers. He made 43 tackles that season, after being on 46 as a freshman. Robbie was an All-State performer for Coach Fred Schoenrock at Demopolis High School, where he was a three-year letterman for teams that had a 3-year mark of 30-5, leading the team in tackles as a junior and senior. Born: 12-25-59.

PETER KIM... Placekicker 3

5-8, 165, Senior, 2-VL, Honolulu, Ha.

The leading scorer for Alabama in each of the last two seasons, Peter transferred from the University of Hawaii after watching the Tide on television and deciding that he liked Bama's "style". Extremely accurate and capable of hitting from long range, Peter holds the Alabama records for field goals in a season (15) and a career (27). Last year, he scored a team high 70 points on 15 of 25 field goals and 25 of 26 PATs. For his two-year career, this native of Seoul, South Korea, has hit on 27 of 38 field goals, with a long of 49 yards, and 60 of 63 PATs, including a stretch of 28 straight conversions. He has hit 27 of 33 field goal attempts inside the 49-yard line, a career mark of 77.8 percent. His longest field goal while at Alabama was a 49-yarder against Southern Miss., but he kicked a 51-yarder against Nebraska while a freshman at Hawaii. In high school, Peter played for Coach Ron Lee, lettering three years in football and two years in soccer. Born: 4-11-59.

EMANUAL KING... Defensive End 92

6-4, 232, Sophomore, Sq., Leroy, Ala.

A gifted athlete, Emanuel should be an able back-up for Tide All-star Mike Pitts at the defensive end spot. Emanuel, who played in five varsity games, in addition to the Cotton Bowl, had a fine spring and should see plenty of action this fall. He made four unassisted tackles last year, all against the run, including one for a three yard loss. He was also the No. 2 tackler for Alabama's junior varsity last year, making 18 stops in the three games. Emanuel was also a first-team Class 1A all-state performer for Coach Larry Massey as a tight end and defensive end, but was perhaps better known as a basketball player after being named twice to the All-State and the All-State Tournament teams while at Leroy High. Born: 8-15-63.

WALTER LEWIS... Quarterback 10

6-1, 205, Junior, 2-VL, Brewton, Ala.

The man of the hour on the Tide team, Walter enters 1982 as Alabama's No. 1 quarterback after sharing the job with Alan Gray, who graduated, and Ken Coley last year. Walter has all the physical qualities that anyone could wish for in a quarterback: a strong arm, excellent speed and moves, and good size. He is also developing into a cool, mature leader with outstanding intelligence--he was selected to the Academic All-SEC team last year. Walter carried the ball 77 times for 313 yards and two TDs last year, and threw 84 more, completing 40 (a 45.5 percentage) for 633 yards and six more scores, while having only two aeriels intercepted. He led the SEC in the complex passing efficiency statistics and narrowly missed the 1,000-yard total offense mark although he started only one game for Alabama last year. His best performances came in the big games -- he had 205 yards in total offense in the Tide's 31-16 besting of Penn State, completing 6 of 10 passes for 167 yards and rushing for 38 more, and he accumulated 201 yards in the Cotton Bowl versus Texas, rushing for 79 and completing 7 of 12 passes for 122 more. As a freshman, Walter played in nine games and came on very strong at the end of the 1980 season, when he had 111 yards offense against Notre Dame and 140 in the Tide's win over Auburn. He came to Alabama after an All-State and All-America career under Coach Frank Cotten at T.R. Miller High (although Miller was a 3A school, Walter was chosen the 2A All-State quarterback to make room for another player on the 3A team--current Alabama back-up QB Paul Fields of Gardendale), but his football career began at a much earlier age; he was a national Punt, Pass and Kick competition champion at the age of eight. Born: 12-12-61.

EDDIE LOWE... Linebacker 57*5-11, 190, Senior, 2-VL, Phenix City, Ala.

A heavy hitter who is one of the top weightlifters on the team despite his relatively small stature, Eddie is expected to step into the starting spot on the linebacking corps after being considered a "co-starter" last year as the third linebacker. He was the No. 3 tackler on the team last year with 85 stops, although he was forced to miss the Cotton Bowl due to an injury. He also had two fumbles caused and one recovery, intercepted two passes, and had two sacks for four yards in losses. He was the team's leading tackler in the 38-7 win over Ole Miss with 17 individual tackles. Eddie was also a top man on the specialty teams with six tackles on kickoffs. As a sophomore, Eddie had 46 tackles, including four behind the line of scrimmage. Eddie sat out the 1979 season after transferring from UT-Chattanooga, where he had gone when Alabama did not recruit him out of high school. Eddie played for Coach Wayne Trawick at Phenix City Central, the same school that produced Jeremiah Castille, a teammate of Eddie's and Billy Jackson for the Tide. He is the brother of the former Alabama All-American Woodrow Lowe, now with the San Diego Chargers of the NFL. Born: 2-1-60.

KEITH MARKS... Wide Receiver 82*6-1, 195, Senior, 1-VL, Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Missed the entire 1981 season and spring training this year due to injury. A capable receiver with good hands and the ability to run a tight route, has started for the Tide in the past—against Florida in 1979 and Tennessee in 1980. For his career, he has five catches for 141 yards, a fine 28.2 average, with four of those catches coming in 1979. His first reception in high school went for a touchdown, and the same thing happened to him in college when he caught a 48-yard scoring strike against Virginia Tech. He played high school football for Coach Red Lutz at Tuscaloosa High, where he earned all-state honors as a senior, making 56 catches for 1,250 yards and 13 touchdowns. He earned the Ray Perkins Most Improved Receiver Award in spring of 1981. His father, Bobby, is the receiver coach for the Crimson Tide; one brother, Bobby, also played at Alabama, and another, Jared, will be a freshman footballer at Texas A & M this year. Born: 10-31-59.

CHUCK McCALL... Middle Guard 77*6-3, 245, Sophomore, Sq., Montgomery, Ala.

An aggressive down lineman, Chuck was one of the top prep prospects in Alabama in 1980 and should make an impression this season for the Tide. He was the leading tackler for the Alabama junior varsity last year with 20 tackles, an average of 6.7 per game that is very impressive for a defensive lineman, particularly a noseguard. Chuck was an All-American high school performer for Coach Billy Livings at Jeff Davis High, one of Alabama's perennially strong football schools. Chuck's teams were 33-3 in the three years that he lettered, including a state 4A championship in 1978. In addition to his prowess on the football field, Chuck is an accomplished musician who plays the piano, organ, and saxophone. Born: 12-22-62.

TOM McCRARY . . . Defensive Tackle 94

6-5, 265, Sophomore, Sq., Scottsboro, Ala.

The Alabama coaches elected to red-shirt Tom last year in order to give him a chance to gain the physical maturity that he needed to compete in the rugged SEC, and the decision seems to have paid off as Tom has increased his weight 22 pounds and has been impressive in the weight room and on the practice field. Tom should provide valuable depth behind returning starters Randy Edwards and Jackie Cline this year. He played only junior varsity football in 1980, but was impressive. He was an All-State lineman for Coach Larry Keys at Scottsboro High, playing both offense and defense, and was also an outstanding prep wrestler for three years. His step-brother, Maxie Boles, played football at Middle Tennessee State and is now the coach for one of the nation's top junior college golf programs at Alex City JC. Born: 8-9-61.

JOHN McINTOSH . . . Offensive Guard

6-1, 244, Sophomore, Sq., Dalton, Ga.

John participated primarily on the junior varsity level last year, playing both center and guard for the JVs, but he should move up to the varsity level this year. John has excellent upper body strength and quickness, and needs only added maturity to play a more prominent role in Alabama plans. He came to Alabama from Dalton High School, the same school as current Tide guard Gary Bramblett, where he played for Coach Bill Chappell. He was an All-Tri State, All-Metro Chattanooga, and All-State 3A performer at Dalton, which had a 33-7 record during John's career. He lettered three years in football and two years each in wrestling and track. Born: 1-10-63.

MIKE McQUEEN . . . Offensive Tackle 75

6-5, 246, Junior, 1-VL, Enterprise, Ala.

It wouldn't be fair to say that Mike is a media personality, but he has started two college football games in his career . . . and both have been on national television. Mike was thrust into the starting line-up last last season and played well against both Auburn and Texas in the Tide's final games of 1981, after sitting out 1980 as a redshirt. He is a very hard worker who should be a "co-starter" with Bob Cayavec this fall although a hand injury kept him out of spring training. Mike is also an excellent student who was inducted into the Mortar Board, a prestigious honor society at the University, this spring. He played for Coach Bill Bacon, as did teammates Doug Vickers and Craig Florence, at Enterprise High School, where he was a two-year starter after moving from Virginia. His father was a three-sport star at Presbyterian College and his cousin, Scott Spann, was an All-American swimmer at Auburn in the '70s. Born: 3-25-61.

SCOTT McRAE... Linebacker 45

6-1, 211, Sophomore, Sq., Huntsville, Ala.

Many people felt that Scott would be a top contender for the starting fullback spot last year, but the Alabama coaches elected instead to convert him to linebacker and to have him spend a redshirt year learning the position, where he is expected to play a big role in the future. Scott played some as a freshman in 1980, seeing action against Southern Miss and Notre Dame, and rushing for 25 yards on 8 carries, including a 7-yard touchdown against Southern. Scott was a fullback and linebacker at Huntsville High, where he played under Coach Paul Glover, so his new position is not unfamiliar to him. He was an all-state performer at Huntsville and rushed for 870 yards on 130 carries, leading the Crimson Panthers to the 4A state playoffs. Scott's grandfather, Roy W. Johnson, played football at the University of Michigan and later went on to become football coach and athletic director at New Mexico. Born: 9-11-62.

RICKY MOORE... Fullback 26

6-0, 235, Sophomore, 1-VL, Huntsville, Ala.

Almost a prototype of the ideal wishbone fullback, Ricky is a powerful runner who became the first freshman to lead Alabama in rushing since the NCAA reinstated freshman eligibility in the early '70s. After a slow start—only five yards in 'Bama's first two games—he came on to finish the season with 347 yards on 79 carries, a 4.4 average. He started one contest, against Vanderbilt. Ricky's best day statistically was against Ole Miss (74 yards on 11 carries), but he also gained crucial yardage against Auburn (10 for 40), Mississippi State (7 for 26), and Kentucky (12 for 55). Much of that yardage was the "between the tackles" real estate that is vital to a wishbone team. He continued to improve this spring and could be a prime all-star candidate by the end of the season.

Ricky was considered the No. 1 running back in Alabama high schools in 1980, when he and current teammate Willard Scissum came to the Tide from Lee High School and Coach Glen Nunley, where he averaged over 100 yards per game as an I-formation tailback. He was also one of the state's top high school baseball prospects. Surprisingly, Ricky did not score a touchdown last year. Born: 4-7-63.

STEVE MOTT... Center 58

6-3, 250, Senior, 2-VL, New Orleans, La.

Steve was second-team All-SEC in both the AP and UPI rankings last year, although many observers felt he was the league's finest middleman, and he is the first-team choice on most of the pre-season All-SEC teams. A three-year starter who works against some tough defensive linemen every day in practice. Steve was named ABC-TV Player of the Game in Alabama's 1980 win over Tennessee, a rare honor for a lineman. Steve missed the spring with an injury, but is expected to be 100 per cent in the fall, and should provide valuable senior leadership on the Tide line this fall. He came to Alabama as a first-team prep All-America from New Orleans' Archbishop Shaw

High School, where he was a four-year letterman and a two-time all-state choice. He also lettered one year in track. Born: 3-24-61.

DAVID MUNCHER... Linebacker

6-3, 195, Junior, Sq., Empire, Ala.

David played in all three jayvee games last season and was the team's fourth leading tackler with 15 stops... Also recorded a fumble recovery in Alabama's 7-2 victory over Ole Miss JVs... A former strong safety, Muncher was converted into a linebacker last year... Made All-State as a high school senior and participated in the North-South high school all-star contest... Played for Coach Don Cox at Dora High School. Born: 4-13-61.

MIKE O'TOOLE... Defensive Back 21

5-9, 160, Senior, Sq., Palmedale, Ala.

Started all junior varsity games in 1981 and made 13 tackles and added an interception in Alabama's 31-7 victory over Marion Institute... Saw varsity time against Mississippi last year... Has been selected to the traveling squad for the Crimson Tide's Cotton Bowl appearances the past two seasons... An intelligent player, O'Toole's academic major is civil engineering... O'Toole attended Pinson Valley High School and played for Coach Jim Currier. Born: 3-9-61.

LINNIE PATRICK... Running Back 25

5-10, 185, Junior, 2-VL, Jasper, Ala.

Linnie is a marvelously gifted runner who needs only to show the requisite maturity on the field and in the classroom to become one of the all-time Alabama rushers. He has good speed, but extraordinary balance and instincts make him one of the truly exciting ballcarriers in the country. He was the team's third leading rusher as a freshman and moved up to second last year, finishing only fifteen yards behind leader Ricky Moore despite missing two games. He led Alabama in rushing in only one game last year--with 78 yards against Georgia Tech--but had a pair of 100-plus games as a freshman, against Ole Miss and Kentucky. He led the team in rushing touchdowns last year with 5 and has eight for his career. He carried the ball four times against Auburn for 48 yards, but had one 31-yard carry that Coach Bryant rated as "one of the best runs he's ever seen", as Linnie broke at least six tackles to set up the game-clinching touchdown, which he scored on a 15-yard run. Linnie came out of Walker County High School rated by most services as the No. 2 prep back in America, behind a youngster named Herschel Walker. He rushed for 5,045 yards in his three year career, averaging 9.6 yards per carry and scoring 47 touchdowns. He was three times all-state, two times All-America, and was twice named Class 4A Player of the Year. He was also named top prep athlete in Alabama by the Hertz Corporation and honored with the rest of the nation's top athletes in New York City. Born: 8-20-61.

GREG PEEPLES . . . Defensive Tackle

6-4, 254, Sophomore, Sq., Gadsden, Ala.

Greg played only junior varsity ball last year, helping to anchor a rushing defense that allowed only 66 yards per game. He also worked on offense in the spring, but is expected to be a backup defensive lineman in the fall. In high school, Greg was an "iron man" performer, playing virtually every snap as a two-way tackle for Coach David Martin. He earned all-region honors and was an honorable mention all-state choice as well. Greg lettered three years in football, and was chosen as team captain in his senior year, and also won two monograms in track. Born: 3-1-63.

MIKE PITTS . . . Defensive End 81

6-5, 255, Senior, 3-VL, Baltimore, Md.

A consensus first-team All-SEC pick and a second team All-America choice by the Football News, Mike is a good bet to be on most of this year's pre-season honor squads. He earned a reputation last year as 'Bama's "big-play man" on defense, leading the team with 14 sacks for 77 yards in losses and accumulating 83 tackles on the year. Last year was his first season to start after spending two years as a backup to Tide All-American E.J. Junior. He also had one pass interception this year, and is generally regarded as an outstanding pass defender for a man his size. Mike played his best in the big games for Alabama, with a top performance of 11 tackles against Penn State.

Mike, who was born in Pell City, Ala., attended Baltimore Polytechnic High School, where he was an All-State defensive tackle for Coach Augie Waible. Polytechnic won the Maryland state championship that year and Mike had fifteen tackles in the state championship game. Born: 9-25-60.

ROB ROBERTS . . . Center

6-2, 230, Sophomore, Sq., Homewood, Ala.

Rob moved from offensive tackle to center last fall and started all three junior varsity contests . . . Made all-region and all-county squads as a high school senior . . . Lettered in football and wrestling as a prep standout . . . Academic major is advertising . . . Played high school football at Homewood High for Coach Gerald Gann. Born: 7-8-63.

MIKE RODRIGUEZ... Middle Guard 31

6-3, 250, Junior, 1-VL, Melbourne, Fla.

Mike came on strong at the end of 1981 and continued to play well throughout the spring, when he definitely established himself as the heir apparent to the nose guard position vacated by Warren Lyles. Mike was a back-up at both middle guard and defensive tackle, making 12 tackles in 10 games and causing a fumble. He was part of the Alabama defensive front that stopped Penn State five times inside the 5-yard line in a key defensive sequence in that Alabama win. He was the runner-up to Walter Lewis in the balloting for A-Day MVP, as he dominated the line of scrimmage and enabled the victorious

Whites to post a shutout. A weight-lifting enthusiast, Mike is probably the strongest player on the team. He also runs a 4.6 40-yard dash, and was tried both as a fullback and a defensive end before settling in the interior line. Mike rushed for 46 yards on 7 carries in a JV game, his only appearance as a back for the Crimson Tide. He lettered three years in football for Coach Larry Canady at Eau Gallie High School, where he was also the Florida champion wrestler at 220 lbs., as well as the state champion in the discus. Mike competed briefly for the Alabama track team as well. He also won the North Carolina state javelin title as a sophomore. His father is a professional wrestler. Born: 12-5-61.

TODD ROPER... Linebacker 53

6-2, 220, Sophomore, Sq., Snellville, Ga.

Todd did not play for the varsity last season until two linebackers were sidelined prior to the Cotton Bowl game, suddenly propelling Todd up the depth chart and into action against Texas. He acquitted himself admirably in that game and should be a prime candidate for playing time in the 1982 season. Todd had two stops against Texas in that game. He also played well this spring. Todd came to Alabama from S. Swinnett High, where he was a four-year letterman as a tackle and fullback for Coach Ed Meyer. He made all-state as a senior and participated in the Georgia High School All-Star Game. He also lettered three years in basketball and two year in track, and was twice elected the Atlanta area defensive player of the week. Todd captained his football team as a junior and as a senior. Born: 3-1-63.

ROY RUMBLEY... Offensive Tackle 62

6-3, 240, Senior, 1-VL, Moss Point, Miss.

Roy is another of the Alabama "success story" -- as a high school senior, he was a 190-lb. lineman and did not attract the interest of the major colleges in the area, but decided to give major college football a shot, so he came to Alabama and walked on. He played mainly junior varsity football, and sat out one season as a redshirt, while gradually building his body and strength. He played a number of positions, but last year settled into the offensive line and managed to earn a starting shot in two games before a back injury sidelined him for the rest of the year. Roy should be a contender at tackle again this year, as he is one of 11 lettermen returning to the Tide front wall. Roy played as a defensive end and an offensive guard at Moss Point High, which annually is one of Mississippi's top producers of collegiate talent. He lettered twice in football for Coach B.W. Miller, and also won two letters in baseball. Born: 10-15-60.

TERRY SANDERS... Kicker 2
6-2, 175, Sophomore, 1-VL, Birmingham, Ala.

Terry is one of the gifted kickers in the Alabama camp, coming to the Tide last year after being ranked as one of the top 10 prospects in the state, an unusual distinction for a kicking specialist. He handled most of the kickoff duties for the Tide last year, usually kicking the ball high enough to allow Alabama's strong coverage unit a chance to stop the opposition--Alabama's opponents averaged only 15 yards per return last year, not a high figure. Terry also kicked one field goal last year, but it may have been the biggest of the season for the Tide --he booted the 28-yard game winner for the Tide against Mississippi State after the Tide's regular kicker, Peter Kim, had been injured in the first half. Coach Bob Finley of perennial power Birmingham Berry had the services of this high school All-American who averaged over 42 yards per punt in the preps. Terry was the first kicker to sign a full scholarship with the Tide since the NCAA imposed the 30-scholarship limit. Born: 8-31-62.

KURT SCHMISSRAUTER... Offensive Tackle 69
6-3, 243, Junior, 1-VL, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Kurt played a good deal early in the year, enough to earn a varsity letter, but he was injured at mid-season and was forced to have a knee operation which caused him to miss much of the Tide's spring drilling as well. Kurt is surprisingly fast for a lineman, and has excellent blocking technique, and if he continues to recuperate, he should be right back in the picture on the Alabama line. Kurt was a highly recruited two-way lineman for Notre Dame High School in Chattanooga, where he earned all-city, all-region, and all-Tennessee honors as a senior. His coach, Jack Cremer, called him "the best pure lineman in East Tennessee." Kurt ran a 4.9 40 in high school. Born: 2-24-61.

WILLARD SCISSUM... Offensive Guard 72
6-3, 260, Sophomore, 1-VL, Huntsville, Ala.

Willard is a young man with an extremely bright future based on his play as a freshman and in this spring's practice. He has the ability to play either guard or tackle in the Tide line, is very strong, and continues to improve as a blocker. He played in eight games last year, and will be a good candidate for a starting job in the fall if his development continues on schedule. Willard played high school football with Tide fullback Ricky Moore at Huntsville Lee, under Coach Glen Nunley, lettering three years and earning all-region honors as a senior. He also wrestled and threw the shot put at Lee. Willard's father, Adolph, played football at Alabama A & M, and a brother, Adolph, Jr., was a wrestler at the Naval Academy. Born: 10-28-62.

RICHARD SHINN . . . Defensive Tackle 99

6-7, 240, Senior, 1-VL, Columbiana, Ala.

Richard is another youngster who earned his way onto the Tide team as a walk-on, playing junior varsity football and sitting through a red-shirt year before earning a spot as a back-up defensive tackle, where he played well in spots last year. Richard also worked at defensive end and offensive tackle while at Alabama. He made three tackles last year after contributing on thirteen as a junior. He prepped under Coach Robert Fairley at Shelby County High, where he won all-mid-state honors and also lettered two years as a center on the basketball team. Born: 5-3-60.

MALCOLM SIMMONS . . . Punter 6

6-4, 200, Junior, 1-VL, Montgomery, Ala.

After sitting out 1980 as a redshirt, Malcolm got a chance to try his hand at varsity punting and promptly led the Southeastern Conference with a 43.9 yard average, a mark which also snapped Charley Boswell's 39-year school mark for kickers with 50+ attempts. Less than half of Malcolm's 60 attempts, covering 2637 yards were returned as the Tide ranked among the national leaders in net punting as well. He also had no kicks blocked and was very poised under the opposing rush. His long kick was 73 yards against Georgia Tech. He averaged 49.5 yards per punt against Tech, 43.2 against LSU, 45.7

against Auburn, 45.6 against Penn State, and 44.4 against Southern Miss. He came to Alabama as a walk-on after lettering three years for Jeff Davis High, where he played with current Tiders Jim Brock and Chuck McCall. He played tight end for Jeff Davis in addition to punting, and also lettered three years in basketball, and was a three-year all-city first baseman in baseball. He is the son of a medical doctor, Earl M. Simmons II, who played football and baseball at Vanderbilt, and Malcolm is majoring in pre-med at the University. Born: 5-18-61.

KEN SIMON . . . Fullback 20

6-1, 195, Senior, 2-VL, Montgomery, Ala.

Ken has true sprinter's speed—he ran the leadoff leg on an Alabama 4 x 100 relay team that set a record with a 39.07 clocking—and is a threat to score from anywhere on the field, as he proved against LSU with a 51-yard touchdown for Alabama's first points of 1981. He finished last season, his first year uncomplicated by injury, with 266 yards on 66 carries, an average of 3.9 yards per carry, scoring once. He played in just three games in 1980, and also missed much of 1979 due to injury. He had one pass reception last year, a 38-yarder that was the first catch of his college career. Ken may split time between fullback and halfback this season. His speed also makes him prominent on Tide specialty teams; in 1979, he made 11 tackles against kickoffs. He was a highly-recruited All-State back for Coach Bo Boswell at Lee High School, where he also set a state record by running the 120-yard high hurdles in 13.69 seconds. Ken was the most valuable player in the 1980 A-Day Game, when he rushed for 73 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns. Born: 11-22-60.

ANTHONY SMILEY . . . Defensive End 52

6-1, 215, Junior, 1-VL, Pinson Valley, Ala.

Anthony backed up all-SEC left end Mike Pitts last fall and should be cast in the same role in 1982, although he gave Tide observers a taste of his football ability in the A-Day Game, when he made 13 tackles and hit so punishingly that it led to his selection as the winner of the Lee Roy Jordan Headhunter Award annually given by the coaches to the spring's most aggressive defender. In his back-up role last fall, Anthony played in ten games, making ten tackles. He was also a prominent member of the Tide kicking teams. In 1980, he played in three JV games, serving as both an end and a linebacker, and made 11 tackles and intercepted a pass. An avid weightlifter and one of the strongest Tiders, he was an all-state and all-district performer for Coach Jim Currier at Pinson Valley High, which was also the alma mater of Tide star Warren Lyles. He was the leading tackler on defense and played fullback on offense, rushing for 986 yards on 191 carries as a senior. The Birmingham Touchdown Club named him Jefferson County Player of the Year in 1979. Born: 4-23-60.

BRENT SOWELL . . . Defensive Tackle 79

6-5, 256, Sophomore, Sq., Clearwater, Fla.

Brent has really matured physically since coming to Alabama and turned in a good performance in the spring, so he will rate a look in the Tide line after spending most of last season as a center for the junior varsity. He has worked as a tight end, linebacker, and defensive end since coming to 'Bama, but he gained 36 lbs. in the past year through working on Coach Mike Marks' weight program, and has been moved to the trenches. He was a third-team all-stater for Coach John Nicely at Clearwater High, lettering for two years on teams that had a combined record of 19-3. He was also a first-team All-Academic Player in Florida, and was voted as the "best all-around" student at his high school. Born: 3-27-63.

JERRILL SPRINKLE . . . Defensive Back 7

6-1, 185, Senior, 2-VL, Chamblee, Ga.

Jerrill started five games in the Alabama backfield last year and should be a top candidate to take over a starting post in 1982, as he has the versatility and athletic ability to play either cornerback or safety. He had 30 tackles last season, fourth among defensive backs and twelfth on the team, and broke up three passes. He won the Bobby Johns Most Improved Defensive Back Award for 1981, following a season in which he played in five games, making six tackles and breaking up a pass. Jerrill played high school football for Chamblee Sequoyah, a metropolitan Atlanta school, for Coach Bill Hale. He lettered four years, playing fullback, linebacker, defensive back, and quarterback. He rushed for 812 yards and passed for 507 more as a senior, when he earned all-region honors and was named his team's most valuable offensive and defensive player. He was team captain, also earning three letters in football and one in track. Born: 1-18-60.

GERALD SWANN . . . Defensive Back

5-11, 185, Junior, Sq., Ashville, Ala.

Saw action in all three of Alabama's junior varsity contests last season . . . Contributed an interception against Marion Institute last year . . . Also made the traveling squad in Alabama's 1982 Cotton Bowl appearance . . . A hard-worker, Swann contributed to Crimson Tide secondary depth . . . Played for Coach Raymond Farmer at Ashville High School. Born: 11-26-60.

PAUL TRIPOLI . . . Defensive Back

6-0, 185, Junior, Sq., Liverpool, New York

Paul red-shirted last season . . . As a freshman, Tripoli intercepted two aeriels in junior varsity play and returned a punt 54 yards to set up a score in the Auburn JV game . . . A hard-worker, Tripoli adds depth and experience to the Alabama secondary . . . Played high school football for Coach George O'Leary at Liverpool Central High School. Born: 12-14-61.

PAUL TRODD . . . Placekicker 8

5-11, 155, Junior, 1-VL, Eufaula, Ala.

Probably one of the top back-up placekickers in the country, Paul would be a starter for most teams but waits behind Peter Kim at Alabama. His value was shown last year, however, when Kim was injured against Mississippi State and Trodd was called on to kick in one of Alabama's biggest games of the year at Penn State. He responded flawlessly, hitting on four extra points and a 27-yard field goal against the Nittany Lions. He has also been the junior varsity kicker for two seasons, and has yet to miss a place-kick attempt, making 12 of 12 PATs and 8 of 8 field goals, including a 44-yarder against Ft. Benning last year. He was the All-State kicker for Lakeside Academy of Eufaula, where he played under Coach H.J. Nick. He set a state private school record with a 58-yard field goal against Macon Academy. Paul was born in Shifnal, England. Born: 3-27-61.

YEAR	PAT	FG-FGA	PTS

CRAIG TURNER... Fullback 44
6-0, 196, Sophomore, Sq., Gaithersburg, Md.

Craig played in only three varsity games, including the Cotton Bowl, last season, but the Tide coaches were more than aware of him as he ran well in practice and was absolutely awesome in JV competition, where he averaged 142.0 yards per game, a total of 426 yards on 52 carries, an average of 8.6 a try. He scored three touchdowns, but had runs of 76, 69, 49, 48 and 37 yards, illustrating his surprising speed, which he couples with good power and instincts. Keep an eye on Craig in the varsity contests this year. He played high school football at Damascus of Gaithersburg, Md., under Coach Chuck Penck. Craig carried the ball for 1,118 yards on 142 carries as a senior; he also returned four punts and a kickoff for scores. He had 36 career touchdowns and was twice all-metro Washington, D.C. Born: 2-19-63.

ALAN UNDERWOOD... Defensive Tackle
6-3, 245, Sophomore, 1-VL, Tuscumbia, Ala.

Alan signed with Alabama after an outstanding high school career at Deshler High, but classroom and injury problems have kept him off the field for the past two seasons. Alan feels all that is behind him now, however, and will try to provide depth on the Alabama front wall this year. He was a high school All-America and one of the top prospects in the state for Coach Jimmy Lockett at Deshler, where he lettered three years as a football lineman and four times as an outstanding heavyweight wrestler. He was one of Alabama's Top Ten Prospects as selected by the state media. Born: 10-22-61.

DOUG VICKERS... Offensive Guard 63
6-3, 248, Junior, 1-VL, Enterprise, Ala.

A true blue-chip prospect out of high school, Doug has done nothing to tarnish that reputation at Alabama, where he won his way into the starting lineup early in the year and played well enough to garner second-team All-SEC recognition from the Associated Press. He started the season as a backup at both guard and tackle, but played well enough in the first two games to take the starting position. He has a great future as a wishbone guard as he continued to get better this spring. Doug should be a top candidate for all-conference recognition in 1982. He played in six games as a freshman, including a good deal of action against Baylor in the Cotton Bowl. He came to Alabama as the MVP of state 1979 4A champions Enterprise, one of the top schools in the state under Coach Bill Bacon. Doug was named to most of the prep All-America squads and of course was all-everything in the state of Alabama. He lettered three years in football and was a strong high school weightlifter as well. Born: 1-4-62.

RICHARD WAGNER... Defensive End 84
6-3, 215, Junior, Sq., Fort Payne, Ala.

Enrolled at Alabama after completing his military service and at 29 years of age, is the oldest member of the 1982 Crimson Tide squad ... Richard started junior varsity games last season versus Ole Miss and Marion Institute. ... Adds depth and experience at his defensive flank post. ... Was an all-conference performer at Fort Payne High School his senior season. ... His high school coach was Jack Nellis. Born: 10-3-53.

HARDY WALKER... Offensive Tackle 73

6-4, 270, Sophomore, 1-VL, Huntsville, Ala.

Another lineman who came to Alabama with an impressive list of credentials, Hardy was the state's top prospect as a high school senior, and was generally considered one of the elite prep linemen in the country, but he committed to Alabama early in the year and did not even take another recruiting visit. He did well in the transition from high school to college last year, playing in seven games with the Tide's alternate offensive line in spite of an ankle injury that caused him to miss some time. He has size, speed, and intensity, and should be a great one in time. Hardy won all available honors in high school football and was the two-time undefeated state heavyweight wrestling champion as well. He played for Coach Larry Robinson at Huntsville Grissom. Born: 2-25-62.

JIMMY WATTS... Linebacker 41

6-1, 226, Junior, 1-VL, Gulf Breeze, Fla.

He was a back-up defensive end on the right side behind Russ Wood last season, but Alabama coaches moved him to linebacker in the spring and were pleased with the results. Strong and mobile, Jimmy has also been tried at fullback, tight end, and running back since coming to Alabama, but seems to have found a home on defense. He made 18 tackles last year, including 3 sacks for 19 yards in losses, caused a fumble and made two tackles on kickoffs. He played much of last year in a modified cast due to a hand injury. As a freshman, Jimmy was the second leading rusher on the junior varsity team gaining 124 yards on 31 carries as a fullback. He started four years for Coach Corky Newman and Gulf Breeze, who knew he had a valuable commodity when Jimmy caught 37 passes and made all-city as a ninth grader. He proceeded to do so again for three more years, and earned all-state honors as a senior. His father and both grandfathers also played college football, so Jimmy is continuing a tradition. Born: 1-13-62.

DARRYL WHITE... Split End 30

5-11, 166, Senior, 1-VL, Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Owner of perhaps the surest hands on the Alabama team, Darryl also has good speed and will be a valuable receiver for the Tide this year. Last year, Darryl caught two passes for 41 yards, a 20.5 average, and scored once on a 26-yard pass from Walter Lewis against Ole Miss. He was also the team's No. 2 punt returner behind Joey Jones, and is a good kickoff returner as well, as shown by a 43-yard kickoff return against Ole Miss in 1980, the Tide's longest that year. Darryl played high school football for Coach Red Lutz at Tuscaloosa High, where he was named all-region and all-West Alabama as a senior quarterback, amassing over 1,000 yards total offense. He also played baseball at Tuscaloosa. Darryl's father, George (Shorty) White played football at Auburn in 1955, as did his uncle, Auburn All-America Jimmy Sidle, but "Shorty" is probably most familiar as an Alabama assistant coach, where he served until 1980. Darryl won the Ray Perkins most improved receiver award in 1980. Born: 1-21-61.

MIKE WHITE...Center 51
6-3, 230, Sophomore, Sq., Decatur, Ga.

Mike sat out last year as a redshirt after playing on the junior varsity level in 1980. He could play guard as well as center and hopes to play his way into the Tide picture this fall. He has excellent upper body strength and is a leader in the weightroom. Mike played for Coach Alan Fahrning at Southwest DeKalb High School, where he was a pre-season all-stater in 1979, but missed five games due to injury. He came back to win all-county honors, though, and was a top prospect. He was area lineman of the week against Peachtree High. He also lettered in baseball. Born: 10-21-61.

TOMMY WILCOX...Defensive Back 15
5-11, 195, Senior, 3-VL, Harahan, La.

All the superlatives apply here. Tommy is a two-time All-American, a two-time All-SEC selection, the SEC's Freshman of the Year in 1979, a Freshman All-America the same year, and an outstanding team leader. He has done promotional work for the NCAA the past two summers. If he continues to meet the same high standards he has set for himself this year, he will be remembered as one of 'Bama's all-time greats. He came to Alabama as a heralded wishbone quarterback from Bonabel High School, outside of New Orleans, but sat out his first year as a freshman redshirt and thought about going home. Instead, he stuck out a move to the secondary and has now become one of the all-time best in the SEC. Statistically, Tommy had 49 tackles and a team-high four interceptions as a freshman, when he helped the team to a 12-0 season and a national championship, also breaking up seven passes, causing three fumbles, and having one tackle for a twelve-yard loss after becoming a starter in the second game of the year against Baylor. He also quarterbacked three plays against Mississippi State, rushing once for a four-yard gain. As a soph, he was third in total tackles with 75, intercepted two more passes, broke up six more, a team high, and made a pair of sacks. He had nineteen tackles against Notre Dame on national TV. As a junior, he made 58 tackles, broke up ten passes, made 3 interceptions, with crucial goal-line pickoffs against Mississippi State in the waning seconds, and Auburn, when he saved a sure touchdown with a twisting catch. He also caused one fumble and recovered one. He has also returned 13 punts for 63 yards in his career. He played high school football for Coach Willie Hof at Bonabel, leading his team to a Quad-A state title as a senior while earning high school All-America honors. Tommy's father, Freddie, played high school football for Tulane. The Alabama coaches worked Tommy at quarterback during one scrimmage this spring, keeping his hand in in case of "emergency", and Tommy showed flashes of the old All-American form, rushing 14 times for 59 yards and leading his team to two touchdowns. Born: 7-30-59.

ROOSEVELT WILDER... Fullback 32

5-11, 191, Junior, Sq., Macon, Ga.

Roosevelt was redshirted in 1980, then got his first taste of varsity competition last year, playing in one game and carrying the ball twice for eight yards. He was also the No. 2 rusher on the junior varsity, gaining 134 yards on 29 carries, after leading that unit with 288 yards on 64 carries in 1979. He scored one touchdown in each season. He has shown good potential at times in practice and scrimmages, and should see more action this year. Roosevelt played high school at Macon Central, where he rushed for 1,197 yards as a senior, and also returned two kicks for touchdowns. He was twice voted his team's MVP and won all-state accolades as a senior. His coach was Larry Parker. He also was a three-year letterman as a sprinter and hurdler for the track team. Born: 12-16-59.

CHARLIE WILLIAMS... Fullback 38

5-11, 238, Senior, 1-VL, Bessemer, Ala.

An excellent wishbone fullback with a low center of gravity and good acceleration, Charlie has missed parts of the past two seasons, but should be able to see full-time action. He had a fine sophomore year in 1980 until he was sidelined with a shoulder injury, then missed part of last year with discipline problems, but worked his way back onto the squad. He gained 84 yards while playing in three games last year, after rushing for 305 yards as a senior. Charlie has gained 473 yards in his career, averaging well over five yards a try. He has scored one touchdown, an eight-yarder against Southern Miss in 1980. He seems to have fully recuperated from shoulder surgery he underwent following the 1980 season. Charlie played his prep ball for Coach Bill Andrews at Jess Lanier High, where he rushed for over 1,000 yards in each of his three varsity seasons, including 1,063 as a senior, when he was named to the Class 4A all-State team. He was injured in the state high school all-star game and was redshirted in 1978 for that reason. Born: 11-24-59.

JON WILLIAMS... Offensive Guard

6-2, 260, Sophomore, Sq., Union Grove, Ala.

Injuries have caused Jon to miss valuable practice time and as a consequence, he has played less than Tide coaches would have liked during his stay in Tuscaloosa. Nevertheless, he could be a factor on future Tide lines if he matures and improves his strength and stamina. He played under Coach Wayne Trimble, a former Alabama star, at Arab High, where he was a three year performer as a tackle and noseguard. He also lettered in basketball and baseball, where he was a teammate of current Alabama basketballer Mark Farmer in both sports. He was a Class 4-A All-State selection for 1980. Born: 8-1-62.

LLOYD WOFFORD . . . Offensive Tackle

6-3, 238, Sophomore, Sq., Atlanta, Georgia

After a disappointing freshman season, Lloyd is expected to move up the depth chart this year . . . Made All-Atlanta squad his senior season at Druid Hills High School . . . Honored by the DeKalb Touchdown Club as linebacker of the week as a prep . . . A talented individual, Wofford also participated as a weightman on his high school track team . . . High school football coach was Tommy Stringer at Druid Hills. Born: 7-23-61.

RUSS WOOD . . . Defensive End 89

6-3, 218, Senior, 2-VL, Elba, Ala.

Russ allayed all fears about the Tide's defensive end situation last year when he and Mike Pitts stepped and played inspired football in replacing E.J. Junior and Gary DeNiro. Russ finished the year with 58 tackles, tied for fifth best on the team, and had ten sacks for 43 yards in losses. He also broke up four passes and was credited with one fumble recovery, a bobble which he caught in the air and returned 33 yards for a touchdown against Vanderbilt. He is not as big as many defensive linemen, but has excellent speed and uses it with intelligence. He started every game last year after playing in ten contests as a sub in 1980, when he made nine total tackles. He was a two-time All-State selection in Class 3A at Elba High School, where he played under his father, Mack Wood, a former Troy State footballer. He was the team's leading tackler and caught passes good for over 1,000 yards as a tight end. His team went 9-2 his senior year, and broke Andalusia's 58-game winning streak. Tide back Don Horstead was a teammate of Russ' at Elba. Born: 6-3-61.

THE CRIMSON TIDE ON RADIO

The University of Alabama radio network is one of the largest in the nation, with 67 stations in Alabama carrying the games and at times the network goes well over 100 stations with the addition of out-of-state stations. Veteran play-by-play announcer John Forney will team with Doug Layton, Jerry Duncan and Tommy Roberts for one of the game's most comprehensive broadcasts. The Richard T. Frick, Jr., Inc., in New York has the rights to Alabama football and basketball networks, with Bert Bank of Tuscaloosa the network director and Jimmy Jones the engineer.

1982 UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA FOOTBALL SIGNEES

CHESTER BRAGGS, B, 6-1, 185, Greensboro (Greensboro Public) - A corner-back-fullback, Chester led his team to a 10-2 record and a berth in the Class 3A state playoffs. He rushed for 1,552 yards in twelve games, scoring 16 touchdowns. He also was in on 177 tackles this year. Coach Robert Lucky says that Chester "is a real dedicated athlete. He runs a 4.4 40 and was the strongest player on our team." He moved to Alabama from Cleveland, Ohio. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Braggs.

VENSON ELDER, LB-FB, 6-2, 210, Decatur, Ga. (Towers) - Rated the No. 4 prospect in the state of Georgia by the Atlanta Journal, Venson played fullback and linebacker. He rushed for 1,020 yards on the season and caught eight passes, scoring a total of ten touchdowns. He was also the starting center on the Towers basketball team. He runs a 4.7 40 and has run an electronically-timed 10.2 100. He played for Coach Joe Windham.

JOE GODWIN, LB, 6-2, 210, New Brockton (New Brockton) - A physical player, Joe prepped under Coach Leavy Boutwell, who moved him from interior line to linebacker for his senior season. Joe responded with 91 primary tackles and 29 assists, which earned him a position on the Class 2A All-State team. Joe has 4.7 speed in the 40. He committed to Alabama early in the recruiting season. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Godwin.

JON HAND, L, 6-7, 280, Sylacauga (Sylacauga) - Jon was a Parade All-America and an academic All-America at Sylacauga High, where he excelled in three sports. He was an All-Mid State basketball player who has led Sylacauga to the state basketball tournament two years in a row, and he was the defending state champion in the shot put. Jon is also an excellent student and was President of his junior class.

DESMOND HOLOMAN, LB, 6-4, 195, Hampton, Va. (Hampton) - A product of the same high school as former Alabama All-America Dwight Stephenson, Desmond was one of the top prospects in the Mid-Atlantic area. Desmond runs a 4.8 40 and despite his size, was still strong enough to play some noseguard in high school. He is also a good student who plans to major in electrical engineering. Desmond played for Coach Mike Smith.

RODNEY JARMON, QB, 6-2, 180, Florence (Coffee) - Rodney is a two-sport star who was also an outstanding two-way footballer. He chose football over basketball, where he also had many scholarship offers. As a senior quarterback, Rodney rushed for 513 yards and six touchdowns, and threw for 659 yards and six TDs. He also had 54 tackles, two interceptions, and a fumble recovery on defense. In basketball, he and brother Greg, now at North Alabama, led Coffee to the 1979 state 4A championship, with Rodney being named tournament MVP. He played for Coach Buddy Moore.

DAVID (HOSS) JOHNSON, Lineman, 6-4, 255, Huntsville (Butler) - One of the state's Top 10 Prospects according to the annual listing made by the Birmingham Post-Herald, David is a two-time All-State performer who made several prep All-America listings this year as well. Quick and agile, David also played on two state playoff basketball teams while at Butler. He comes from the same program that sent current Tide linebacker Steve Booker to the University, and played under Coach Mike Gerry. Hoss was also active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

SHON LEE, QB, 6-0, 190, Deatsville (Prattville) - Shon quarterbacked Prattville to a berth in the state 4A playoffs and was named all-state quarterback by at least one newspaper. He rushed 150 times for 650 yards and eight touchdowns, threw 27 completions for 345 yards, and punted for a 40-yard average. He has excellent quickness (4.6 in the 40) and impressed Tide coaches with his strength as well. Shon played for Coach John Glascock.

WES NEIGHBORS, L, 6-2, 235, Huntsville (Huntsville) - The son of former Alabama great Billy Neighbors (1959-61), Wes was considered the Number One prospect in the state of Alabama by the Birmingham Post-Herald. Wes played center and linebacker for Coach Paul Glover, who says, "the only trouble with Wes is deciding where to play him. He would have helped our team at any position." Wes was named to several All-America prep teams, and Blue Chips magazine rated him as the No. 1 linebacker in America.

GARY OTTEN, L, 6-6, 260, Huntsville (Lee) - A four-sport letterman in high school, Gary was considered an outstanding prospect despite missing much of his junior year due to illness. Gary comes from the same school, Huntsville Lee, that sent Willard Scissum, Ricky Moore, and Thomas Boyd to the Crimson Tide. In addition to football, he played baseball and basketball, and competed in track, both in the shot put and the two-mile run. Coached by Glen Nunley.

JOHN PEMBERTON, B, 6-1, 190, Atlanta (Woodward Academy) - John played for one of Georgia's top teams last year, where he accumulated over 1,200 yards and an amazing 20 touchdowns. He averaged 6.5 yards per carry, and has excellent speed, including an electronically-timed 9.8 in the 100. He has often been compared by the media to former Tide star Major Ogilvie. John played for Coach Graham Nixon.

LARRY ROBERTS, E, 6-4, 212, Dothan (Northview) - Larry was the outstanding player on the 1981 Alabama state champions, and was named player of the year in Class 4A. Larry is extremely strong—he can deadlift 600 pounds—yet runs a 4.65 40-yard dash. He was one of the Birmingham Post-Herald's Ten Most Wanted Prospects in Alabama this year. He also played defensive end, leading the team in tackles, and kicked for his team. He scored nine touchdowns receiving this year, and in one game, added a 52-yard field goal. He played for Coach Wayne Parrish.

FREDDIE ROBINSON, DB, 6-1, 185, Mobile (Davidson) - Freddie played exclusively defense this season, where he helped Davidson to a 7-3 record, their best in years. Freddie had only three interceptions this year, but few teams chose to challenge him. One Mobile area coach called him "the best open-field tackler I've seen." He also has excellent quickness, running a 4.4 40-yard dash. Freddie played for Coach Tate Marsh.

DERRICK SLAUGHTER, LB, 6-0, 222, Birmingham (Banks) - Derrick gained a reputation as a heavy hitter this year, and was backed up by the interest of over 50 major colleges. He was also named one of the state's Ten Best by the Birmingham Post-Herald, and was selected as the city's Lineman of the Year. Coach David Cutcliffe of Banks says, "Derrick is an intelligent football player, is very agile, and just explodes to the ballcarrier."

JOE SMITH, E, 6-2, 185, Mobile (Murphy) Joe is the latest in a long line of outstanding receivers from Murphy High, which has also produced Mardye McDole (Mississippi State), and current Alabama standout Joey Jones. Joe was named first-team All-State by the Montgomery Advertiser, averaging over 14 yards a catch and leading Murphy to the state playoffs, where they lost to eventual champ Northview. Joe has 4.55 speed in the 40. He played for Coach Bob Shaw.

MIKE SPENCER, LB, 6-1, 210, Coral Springs, Fla. (St. Thomas Aquinas) - Mike comes from one of the top football schools in the South, as five players from St. Thomas signed major college grants. Mike, who played for Coach George Smith, is quick and strong, with 4.6 speed in the 40 and a 345 bench press. He had a top single game performance of 26 tackles and averaged over 11 per game. He made at least one All-State team this year and was on the Gainesville Sun list of Top 50 players.

CLIFF THOMAS, L, 6-2, 240, Pearl, Miss. (Brandon Academy) - Rated as one of the top two linemen in the state of Mississippi this year, Cliff made all that state's honor squads, including the Jackson Clarion-Ledger Top 12 and the AP All-State team. Cliff has been projected as a noseguard in college, but played tackle, end, and even some fullback in high school. Cliff has 4.9 speed in the 40, benches 325. He averaged six tackles a game despite frequent double-teaming. He played for Coach Sam D'Antone.

KEVIN WELNIAK, L, 6-3, 247, Ft. Walton Beach, Fla. (Ft. Walton Beach) - Kevin is a pure lineman with good natural strength and excellent lateral quickness. He was a team leader for Ft. Walton state playoff team this year. He runs a 5.1 40 and can bench press 375 pounds. Kevin played for Coach Dwight Thomas.

TODD WILKINS, QB, 6-1, 195, Jacksonville, Fla. (Lee) - One of Florida's "Sweet 16" high school prospects, as selected by the Jacksonville Journal, Todd is a two-time all-star who was selected as Jacksonville's Offensive Player of the Year this season after throwing for 1,351 yards (81 of 136) and 14 touchdowns, and rushing for eight more scores. He also punted for his team and had a 40.5 yard average this year. He is an outstanding all-around athlete (4.7 speed in the 40) and a solid student. Todd played for Coach Corky Rogers.

VERNON WILKINSON, B, 6-1, 170, Enterprise (Enterprise) - Another player from a fine football program, Vernon was a high school teammate of current Crimson Tide players Doug Vickers and Craigie Florence, and played for Enterprise High's 1979 state champions. Vernon was able to play primarily on defense for Coach Bill Bacon this year, and he intercepted five passes. He has excellent speed (4.6 in the 40), and also played some wide receiver last year.

ALABAMA AND TENNESSEE WIN BERNIE MOORE TROPHY

The coveted Bernie Moore Trophy, named for the Southeastern Conference Commissioner who served from 1948 to 1966, symbolizes the best all-around sports program in the SEC. In 1981-82 competition for the trophy, for the first time, there is a tie. Alabama and Tennessee share the honor.

Under the scoring system of 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 for the seven SEC sports, the winners earned 55 points each. Georgia scored 53½, Florida 45, Auburn 32, Ole Miss 29, Kentucky 27½, LSU and Mississippi State 27, and Vanderbilt 15.

Tennessee earned a first-place finish in track, tied Kentucky for the basketball title, placed second in baseball and tennis, tied for fourth in football, finished fifth in golf and fourth in swimming. No Alabama team finished below fourth place. The Tide's points came on a tie for first in football, first in swimming, third in basketball, a tie for third in three sports -- tennis, golf and track -- and fourth in baseball. Georgia won two championships outright, golf and tennis, and tied for first in football. Florida, East sector and tournament champions, took the baseball crown.

Alabama won the title three other years, in 1974, 1976, and 1977.

Alabama Head Coach and Athletic Director Paul W. "Bear" Bryant

ALABAMA HEAD COACH - PAUL WILLIAM "BEAR" BRYANT

Happy and relieved that the hoopla of a record setting year is over, Paul "Bear" Bryant has put aside most of the memories of last season when he became the winningest coach in the history of intercollegiate football with 315 career wins, surpassing the record of legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg by one game.

But holding true to form, coach Bryant now has set other goals, certainly lofty ones that start with another Southeastern Conference championship and hopefully a national championship on New Year's Day.

Setting and accomplishing goals throughout his 37-year coaching career has been one of coach Bryant's finer qualities and much of that success must be attributed to his uncanny ability to motivate his coaches and players to excel above their natural talent level.

This year is no different, for already, "the man in the houndstooth hat," has issued detailed instructions to his players - "return in top condition and be ready to go to war or be gone." Members of the coaching staff have received their instructions as well.

Renown as an innovator who is able and willing to try different schemes to achieve the high degree of success he has enjoyed for so many years, coach Bryant looked first at himself following the extremely difficult 1981 season that left him drained and bone weary. So what did he do but a very uncharacteristic thing for the man who burns the midnight oil daily - he got away from the office for four-weeks in the month of June and returned bright and peppy and raring to get started on another season... well, almost.

Asked by a writer during late summer if he was looking forward to next season, coach Bryant replied, "Why hell no, I'm not over the Cotton Bowl yet," referring to the Tide's bitter 14-12 loss to Texas, which scored two late touchdown's to nip any hopes of another national championship for Alabama.

But there still remained a shining glint in the eyes of the man who is tops in his profession and one may be assured there is excitement emanating from him about the coming year and all those that follow.

As might be expected following the record breaking year, one in which the Tide earned its 13th SEC title, honors flowed in for coach Bryant in steady fashion. He was selected SEC Coach-of-the-Year for the eighth time (no other coach has been honored more than four); he was given special recognition at the NCAA Honors Dinner in Houston, and then was honoree at an enormous dinner in Washington D.C., dubbed, "America's Tribute to Paul "Bear" Bryant," which was attended by hundreds of his former players and world personalities.

All of the attention makes for an uncomfortable and embarrassed coach Bryant, who steadfastly exclaims, "I never won a single game, my players did - but I sure have lost a lot of 'em."

Bryant has received countless honors but one of his most cherished came in 1981 when his beloved alma mater bestowed upon him an honorary Doctorate of Laws degree.

Some amazing won-loss statistics reveal that coach Bryant holds a 315-81-17 record, an average of 8.5 wins per season during his 37-year career as head coach. Furthermore, his teams have averaged 10.4 wins a year during the last decade and his teams of 1977-80 won more games than any team in history for a four-year period by claiming 44 wins.

His 24-year record at Alabama is 224-42-9, an average of 9.3 wins per year and a winning percentage of .830. Eleven years, the fewest games his teams have won is nine; he has won 12 games once, 11 games six times, 10 games twice and nine games twice.

When the Tide lost to Texas in the 1982 Cotton Bowl, it broke a six-bowl win streak for Bryant and moved his overall bowl record to 14-12-2 and an 11-10-2 mark at Alabama.

Six of coach Bryant's teams have won national championships, those coming in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979. Six other times his teams have had legitimate shots at winning the national title, but lost it on the field four times and were shutout at the polls the other two. In 1962, his team was ranked first until the next-to-last game, when Georgia Tech upset Bama, 7-6. In 1966, coming off two straight national titles, the Tide went 11-0 and crunched Nebraska 34-7 in the Sugar Bowl, but the Tide finished third in both polls.

Alabama had another chance in 1971 when the Crimson Tide went into the Orange Bowl against Nebraska, one of collegiate football's greatest teams. But Bryant was denied again, this time 38-6 at the hands of the Cornhuskers.

In 1972, Bama was ranked among the nation's leaders until the final game. Then, in 1974, Alabama was No. 1 going into the New Year's Day Orange Bowl, but a 13-11 loss to Notre Dame ended the title hopes. And finally, in 1977 when Alabama was 11-1 with a 35-6 whipping of Ohio State in the Sugar Bowl and Tide fans rejoicing after Texas was beaten in the Cotton Bowl by Notre Dame, the title was handed to the Irish who vaulted from fourth to first ahead of Alabama.

Born September 11, 1913 near Fordyce, Arkansas in the hamlet of Moro Bottom, Bryant came from a proud, but poor family of 11 brothers and sisters. Moro Bottom is described by Bryant as "a little piece of bottom land on the Moro Creek, about seven miles south of Fordyce."

He played in the first football game he ever saw after a local cobbler put cleats on his only pair of shoes. In those days, athletes played on both sides of the line, so it was not unusual to find Bryant's name on the offensive and defensive rosters of the Fordyce High School Red-bugs. He gained some notoriety because of his size, and was eventually recruited by the late Hank Crisp to play for Alabama.

While at the Capstone, he became known as the "other end" because of the great Don Hutson, who was also a member of those great Alabama teams that went 23-3-2 during three years. Bryant was a member of the 1934 team that defeated Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl.

A member of the Class of 1936, Bryant's coaching career was launched at his alma mater. He served four years as a Tide assistant under Frank Thomas and then went to Vanderbilt for two years under Red Sanders. After the 1941 season, he volunteered for duty with the U.S. Navy. He was discharged in time to take the head coaching job at Maryland in 1945.

In his first season, the Terrapins went 6-2-1 and when Bryant pulled up stakes and headed for Kentucky, there were cries of protest. In eight seasons with the Wildcats, his teams went 60-23-5, won the first SEC title in Kentucky history and played in four post-season bowls.

In 1954, Bryant moved to Texas A&M and experienced his first losing season as a coach, a 1-9 record. In 1955, he turned things around for the Aggies and for the next three years guided A&M to a 24-5-2 record, won the Southwest Conference championship and produced a Heisman Trophy winner in John David Crow.

Coach Bryant then became head coach at Alabama in 1958 and set about carving a niche in collegiate football history for the University. In addition to his 224-42-9 record over the last 24 years at the Capstone, the Crimson Tide has won 13 SEC championships. Counting the one he won at Kentucky and another at Texas A&M, Bryant has 15 conference championship seasons.

He was SEC Coach of the Year in 1961, 1964, 1971, 1973, 1974, 1977, 1979 and 1981 and National Coach of the Year in 1961, 1971 and 1973.

Coach Bryant has personally taken part in 30 bowl games, 28 as a head coach, one as a player and the other as an assistant coach. Last year's Cotton Bowl was the 23rd consecutive bowl appearance by a Bryant-coached team at Alabama and the University's 35th appearance overall, both national records.

If there is one thing that makes coach Bryant proud, it is the fact that 45 of his former players or assistant coaches have become head coaches in college or professional football.

He is married to the former Mary Harmon Black and they are the parents of two children, Paul Bryant, Jr., and Mrs. John (Mae Martin) Tyson, III. Coach and Mrs. Bryant have five grandchildren.

BRYANT GETS BETTER WITH AGE

One interesting observation on Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's career is that he just gets better with age. He became a head coach at Maryland at the age of 32, and listed below is a breakdown of his record by age groups.

AGE	YEARS	WON	LOST	TIED	.PCT
32-39	1945-1952	59	23	5	.707
40-49	1953-1962	73	24	8	.733
50-59	1963-1972	88	22	3	.792
60-68	1973-Present	95	12	1	.892

Now broken down by decades according to the calendar:

YEARS	WON	LOST	TIED	.PCT
1945-1949	35	14	3	.702
1950-1951	68	30	8	.706
1960-1969	90	16	4	.836
1970-1979	*103	16	1	.862
1980-1981	19	4	1	.813

COACH BRYANT 38-5 VS. HIS PUPILS

Paul Bryant has a record of 37-5 against his "pupils", including having won the last 27 games in a row against head coaches who either played for him or coached on his staff. Individually, here is how Coach Bryant has done against his pupils: 14-2 vs. Charley McClendon, 6-0 vs. Bob Tyler, 6-1 vs. Bill Battle, 4-0 vs. Jerry Claiborne, 4-0 vs. Steve Sloan, 2-1 vs. Paul Dietzel, 1-0 vs. Charley Pell, 1-0 vs. Howard Schnellenberger, 0-1 vs. Gene Stallings. The last time Coach Bryant lost to an ex-pupil was back in 1970, when actually he lost to Bill Battle at Tennessee, 24-0, in October, and to Charley McClendon at LSU, 14-9, in November. His loss to McClendon was the last, having won the last 28.

ALABAMA'S TV SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Twenty-five times Alabama players have been named the outstanding offensive and defensive player of the game in Chevrolet's special $1,000 scholarship program on ABC-TV telecasts.

The program, which provides money for the schools' general scholarship fund, began in 1971. In each case, a scholarship is awarded to the school in the athlete's name.

Over the years, $30,000 has been won by Crimson Tide athletes for the University's overall scholarship program. None of the money is used in any form for athletics.

The following is a list of Alabama's "player of the game" honorees:

1971	QB Terry Davis vs. LSU	1975	DT Bob Baumhower vs. Auburn
1971	LB Jeff Rouzie vs. LSU	1976	QB Jack O'Rear vs. Tennessee
1971	RB Johnny Musso vs. Auburn	1977	DE Wayne Hamilton vs. Southern Cal

ALABAMA'S PRESIDENT DR. JOAB THOMAS

Dr. Joab Langston Thomas assumed the presidency of The University of Alabama on July 1, 1981 after serving since 1976 as Chancellor of North Carolina State University.

The 48-year-old native of Holt, Ala., is certainly no stranger to this University, though, having served here in both faculty and administrative roles for 15 years prior to accepting the chancellorship at North Carolina State. A noted and widely published botanist, Thomas joined the Alabama faculty in 1961 as assistant professor of biology, rising to professor of biology, assistant dean in the College of Arts and Sciences, and vice president for student affairs. While at the University, he served as director of the Herbarium and Arboretum, director of the Biological Station at Tanglewood, and director of interim programs. In 1965, he received the Outstanding Professor Award.

Thomas received his bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees from Harvard University. He is married to the former Marly Dukes of Boise, Idaho, an alumna of Harvard and Radcliffe. The Thomases have four children, Catherine, a sophomore at Harvard; David, an Alabama freshman; Jennifer, a high school student; and Frances, a student in junior high school.

The announcement that Thomas would be returning to Tuscaloosa was met with enthusiasm both on campus and throughout the state. Dr. Howard B. Gundy, who was serving as acting president, said, "I can't think of anyone who has even comparable qualifications for this job. I believe in Joab Thomas."

Right away, the new president explained his hopes for the University and the state. "I am convinced," he said, "that a strong major research university in Alabama is the key to success in this state. The time has come for us to put away fancy words and beautiful phrases and roll up our sleeves and go to work."

An avid outdoorsman, Thomas was once described by a friend as "the kind of guy to ride the river with."

Joab Thomas would have become associated with The University of Alabama a lot sooner, had he accepted a scholarship offer to join the Alabama Crimson Tide as a football player. A blue-chip high school gridiron star in Russellville, Ala., Thomas turned down numerous scholarship offers - including the Tide's - to enroll at Harvard. He has maintained a keen interest in college athletics, serving as chairman of the collegiate athletics committee of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges and as a member of the President's Commission on Collegiate Athletics of the American Council on Education. In early 1981, even before assuming the Alabama presidency, Thomas was named to a three-year term on the executive committee of the SEC.

In June of 1982, Dr. Thomas was elected Chairman of the Board of Directors of the College Football Association.

THE CRIMSON TIDE COACHING STAFF

KEN DONAHUE, ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

An Alabama assistant since 1964, Ken Donahue was honored in 1975 as the "Working Coach of the Year" in the Southeastern Conference. Assistant head coach for the Crimson Tide since 1975, Donahue is responsible for the defensive down linemen and also serves as the Alabama defensive coordinator. Known as a tireless worker, Donahue pours over opponent's offensive game films, draws up defenses and puts in long hours in an attempt to stay one step ahead of the opposition. A graduate of the University of Tennessee, he played under Gen. Bob Neyland and was a member of the Vols' Cotton Bowl team in 1951. He served as line coach at Memphis State (1951-55) before rejoining his alma mater for five seasons.

Before joining the Alabama staff, Donahue was an assistant coach at Mississippi State for three years. He was born Feb. 28, 1926 in Corryton, Tenn. He saw duty in World War II as an Army staff sergeant. He and his wife, the former Jeannine Bolton, are the parents of four sons.

MAL MOORE, OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

The offensive brain behind the Tide, Mal Moore is Alabama's quarterback coach as well as offensive coordinator. A native of Dozier, Moore can be seen on Alabama's sideline, usually wearing a pair of headsets, conferring with Crimson Tide quarterbacks or drawing up plays on a blackboard. He was born December 19, 1939 and came to Alabama as a quarterback and was a member of the 1961 Crimson Tide National Championship squad. In addition, he holds master's and bachelor's degrees from Alabama. In 1963, Moore began his coaching career as an assistant at Montana State. He then returned to Alabama in 1964 as a graduate assistant and tutored on that season's National Championship team. He served a short tour in the Air Force before rejoining Alabama in 1965 for another national title. Moore lettered during the 1962 campaign on a Crimson Tide team that recorded a 10-1 mark including a 17-0 victory over Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. He and his wife, the former Charlotte Davis of Tuscaloosa, are the parents of one daughter.

BRUCE ARIANS, RUNNING BACKS

Entering his second season as a Crimson Tide assistant in charge of running backs, Bruce Arians arrived on the Alabama scene in 1981 after serving three years on the Mississippi State staff. Prior to coaching at State, Arians served under 'Bama alumnus Jimmy Sharpe at Virginia Tech for three seasons. A graduate of Virginia Tech, he was the starting quarterback at VPI in 1974 and was named the most valuable player on the Gobbler squad his senior season. A leader on the Tech campus, Arians was selected to O.D.K., a national leadership organization. A native of York, Pa., he received a bachelor's degree from VPI in education. Arians is married to the former Chris Allen also of York, and they have one son, Jake.

LOUIS CAMPBELL, DEFENSIVE BACKS

Responsible for the Alabama secondary, Louis Campbell re-joined the Crimson Tide in 1980 after spending three seasons at SMU. Previously, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama (1973-74) before becoming a full-time staffer for two seasons (1975-76). A native of Hamburg, Ark., he starred at the University of Arkansas where he was a three-year starter for the Razorbacks under Frank Broyles. During his career (1970-72), he intercepted 12 passes while at Arkansas, which ranks second in Hog history for career pass thefts. He tied a single game record in the 1971 Liberty Bowl with three interceptions versus Tennessee and was also named the game's most valuable defensive player. He was a two-time academic All-Southwest Conference selection and was All-SWC his senior campaign. He is married to the former Ila Sue Murphy and they are the parents of two sons.

SYLVESTER CROOM, LINEBACKERS

After a distinguished playing career at Alabama, Sylvester Croom joined the Crimson Tide staff in 1976. Croom, a multi-talented performer while at Alabama, works with Tide defensive ends. In his playing days, Croom operated at linebacker, tight end, offensive tackle and settled at center in 1973 and 1974. A three-year letterman for the Crimson Tide, he was a member of the 1974 Kodak (coaches' association) All-America team, an All-SEC selection, and won the Jacobs Blocking Award for best down lineman in the SEC. In addition, he was selected by the Alabama staff as the outstanding senior on offense and was co-captain in 1974 along with Ricky Davis. A graduate of Tuscaloosa High School, he played for the New Orleans Saints in 1975 before becoming a Tide staffer. He played on Alabama teams that recorded an overall 32-4 worksheet, won three SEC titles and captured the 1973 UPI National Championship. Croom holds a bachelor's degree in history and a master's degree in education from Alabama. He and his wife, the former Jearline Ingram, are the parents of one daughter.

PAUL DAVIS, RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Head of recruiting responsibilities for Alabama, Paul Davis enters his second season as a Crimson Tide assistant. A native of Knoxville, Tennessee, Davis was an Auburn aide for 13 seasons before joining 'Bama in 1981. A graduate of Mississippi, Davis was a high school coach for three years at New Albany, Miss., then coached five seasons in the junior college ranks. In 1955, Davis joined the Memphis State staff. He then spent two seasons as an assistant coach in the Canadian Football League before joining Georgia in 1961. In 1962, Davis was named head coach at Mississippi State. While in Starkville, his 1964 Bulldog squad defeated Ole Miss for the first time since 1946 and his 1963 version knocked off North Carolina State in the Liberty Bowl as he won Coach-of-the-Year honors in the Southeast U.S. He was honored in 1972 as Working Coach of the Year in the SEC. Married to the former Mary Earle Samuels, they have a son Retl and a daughter Becky.

STEVE HALE, DEFENSIVE ENDS

A rookie member of Alabama's 1982 football staff, Steve Hale comes to the Crimson Tide from Clemson University--national champions in 1981. Hale, a native of Columbus, Ga., began his coaching career at East Carolina as the secondary coach for two seasons before joining Clemson's staff in 1980 as defensive end coach. As at Clemson, Hale will be in charge of defensive flank positions at Alabama. As a defensive back at East Carolina, Hale performed under the tutelage of current Auburn coach Pat Dye. In addition, he was a three-sports star at Columbus (Ga.) High School and won numerous city and area awards before graduating in 1974. Hale earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from East Carolina in 1978. He is single.

MURRAY LEGG, DEFENSIVE BACKS

Murray Legg enters his second season as a Crimson Tide assistant coach tutoring the defensive backs. The Birmingham native began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Alabama in 1979 while completing his bachelor's degree in public relations and advertising. While playing for the Crimson Tide, Legg was named to the All-Southeastern Conference squad as a defensive back in 1978. In addition, he was a three-year starter on Alabama teams that recorded 31 wins against five losses, won three SEC titles and won a National Championship in 1978. At Homewood High in Birmingham, he was the quarterback and captain of the 1974 state championship team. Legg gained All-State and All-South honors as a high school senior. He is married to the former Lisa Moore of Pensacola, Fla.

BOBBY MARKS, RECEIVERS

The receiver coach at Alabama, Bobby Marks joined the University of Alabama staff in 1972. Formerly, Marks coached three seasons at Texas A&M, his alma mater. An All-Southwest Conference end at Texas A&M under Coach Bryant, Marks helped the Aggies win a 1956 SWC Championship before he graduated in 1958. A native of New Orleans, he served as an assistant coach at Nederland (Tex.) High School in 1959-60, moved to Jones High School in Houston from 1961-64 and then became head coach at Sam Houston High in Houston in 1965. In 1968, Marks became the linebacker coach at Texas A&M before moving to receiver coach the following season. Bobby has three sons including Keith, a split end for the Crimson Tide. He is married to the former Ann Thrasher of Bay Minette, Ala.

BRYANT "TEX" POOL, DEFENSIVE LINE

A four-year letterman at East Texas State University, Bryant "Tex" Pool rejoined the Crimson Tide coaching staff in 1977. Previously, Pool coached at Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College in 1976. The native of Clarksville, Tex., was a graduate assistant at Alabama in 1974 and remained on the Crimson Tide staff the following season. Pool earned eight high school letters in football, basketball and track at Clarksville High and graduated from East Texas State in 1973 with a degree in physical education. In 1973, he was All-Lone Star Conference and honorable mention AP All-America as a tackle. He and his wife, the former Linda Sue Porterfield, are the parents of one daughter.

DEE POWELL, OFFENSIVE GUARDS AND TACKLES

A three-year letterman under Coach Bryant at Texas A&M, Dee Powell was honored in 1979 as the "Working Coach of the Year" in the Southeastern Conference. Powell is responsible for offensive guards and tackles and has been an assistant at Alabama since 1974. After graduating from Texas A&M, he joined the Crimson Tide staff for a short time in 1958 before joining the Air Force. In 1963-64, he became a full-time Alabama staffer, but left to join Gene Stallings at Texas A&M in 1965 where he spent eight years as the Aggie defensive coordinator. After a season at SMU in 1973, he rejoined the Alabama staff. He served in the Air Force as a captain for two years. He and his wife, the former Diane Duboise of Lockhart, Tex., are the parents of two children.

JACK RUTLEDGE, CENTERS AND KICKING GAME

One of the many multi-faceted members of the Alabama staff, Jack Rutledge serves as the Crimson Tide center coach, kicking and specialist coach and is the head mentor for the junior varsity team. A 1962 graduate of the University, Rutledge lettered three seasons under Coach Bryant and was a member of the 1961 National Championship squad. Following his senior season at Alabama, he became head coach at Demopolis High School (1962-64). He transferred to Sheffield High in 1965 and then joined the Crimson Tide staff prior to the 1966 season. Rutledge played high school football at Woodlawn High School in Birmingham where he was the team's leading rusher and scorer for two consecutive state championship teams.

He was converted into an offensive guard at Alabama. He and his wife, the former Norma Jean Wilson, are directors of Bryant Hall, the athletic dormitory, and are the parents of two sons. Rutledge has been known to many as "Governor" since his playing days because of his resemblance to former Alabama Governor Jim Patterson.

JIM GOOSTREE, TRAINER

Recognized nationally as one of the finest men in his field, Jim Goostree enters his 26th year as Alabama's head athletic trainer and oversees one of the nation's finest athletic health care and injury rehabilitation programs. Under his direction, Tide athletes receive the best care available with a full staff of doctors serving the department, including at least one doctor in attendance for each practice session. A native of Clarksville, Tenn., Goostree attended Southwestern at Memphis and the University of Tennessee. He received two letters in basketball and golf at Southwestern and was named the school's top athlete in 1949. He also played golf at Tennessee while completing requirements for his master's degree. He served in the Navy from 1953-55 before beginning his coaching career at Clarksville (Tenn.) High School as head football coach, baseball coach and assistant basketball coach. He came to Alabama on July 15, 1957, one year before Coach Bryant returned as head coach. He has served as head trainer for the Blue-Gray All-Star game and was the head trainer for the Senior Bowl for 15 seasons. He and his wife Mary are the parents of three daughters and one son.

HENRY "SANG" LYDA, ASSISTANT TRAINER

Entering his 10th season as assistant trainer for the University, Henry "Sang" Lyda served as head manager with the Tide during his undergraduate days. The Gadsden native earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees at Alabama. In addition, Lyda serves as head trainer for the Crimson Tide basketball team. Other duties for Lyda include advising the "A" Club, the campus lettermen's organization and teaching a course on athletic injuries. He and Goostree conduct one of the nation's top clinics for high school coaches and trainers. He is married to the former Janie Seal of Mobile and they are the parents of two daughters.

AL MILLER, STRENGTH COACH

Al Miller joined the staff in August, succeeding Mike Marks, who had been strength coach four years.

A native of El Dorado, Ark., Miller was a prep football star and pole vaulter before accepting a scholarship to Northeast Louisiana University, where he was a four-year letterman for the Indians. Miller set school records for both season and career catches as a split-end and was named to the All-Gulf States Conference team as a junior and senior.

He earned a B.S. degree in physical education from Northeast Louisiana in 1970 and a Masters degree in P.E. from Louisiana Tech in 1974.

Following graduation, Miller served as assistant football coach at Lee Junior High School in Monroe, La., two years, then at Woodlawn High School in Shreveport two years, and then at Northwestern State University at Natchitoches, La., for four years.

After entering private business for two years, Miller was strength coach at Mississippi State one year before moving to Northeast Louisiana in 1981.

He is married to the former Janis Brandon of Monroe, La., and they are parents of two children.

TIDE MOVING TOWARD 600th VICTORY

On Thanksgiving night, 1973, the University of Alabama became the eighth team in intercollegiate history to win 500 football games when it downed LSU, 21-7, on national television.

The Crimson Tide has a won-lost record of 585 victories, only 199 losses and 42 ties in 87 years. That figures to a .734 winning percentage. Alabama is 15 wins away from the 600 mark.

Here are some milestone Tide victories over the years:

Win No.	Score	Opponent	Site & Date
1	56-0	Birmingham High School	Birmingham, Nov. 11, 1892

SCORING RULES CHANGE

Point values for scoring a football game in college have changed six times since the sport was initiated at Alabama . . .

Safeties have always been TWO points but a field goal was worth FIVE points from 1893 to 1903 and worth FOUR points from 1904 to 1908 before gaining its present value of THREE Points. Touchdowns started out at FOUR points. They became FIVE points in 1898 and stayed at FIVE until 1912 when they reached SIX points as they are today. The conversion was once valued at TWO points whether the team ran it, passed it, or kicked it. Then in 1898 it was changed to ONE point for a kick, or run. It received its present value of TWO points for a run or pass and ONE point for a kick in 1958.

WHY WE CALL OUR FOOTBALL TEAM THE CRIMSON TIDE

Up until 1906, and even until the early 1920's, Alabama football teams were nicknamed "The Thin Red Line". The name "Crimson Tide" is supposed to have first been used by a sports-writer in describing an Alabama-Auburn game played in Birmingham in 1907--the last grid contest between the two schools until 1948 when the series was resumed. The game was played in a sea of mud and Auburn was a heavy favorite to win. But, evidently, the "Thin Red Line" played a great game in the red mud and held Auburn to a 6-6 tie, thus gaining the name "Crimson Tide".

1982 ALABAMA BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

It won't be a total rebuilding year for Alabama basketball coach Wimp Sanderson, but there is enough talent gone from the Tide squad to make the job difficult. After taking his team to the NCAA Tournament for only the third time in Alabama history, Sanderson is now faced with the task of putting together another team that will challenge for a national title. But, he has some holes to fill.

The Tide lost three seniors off the squad that went 24-7 last year and two of those were starters. Returning will be 10 lettermen, including three starters.

Back are seniors Eddie Adams (6-0, 175, G), Mike Davis (6-5, 195, G), Vance Wheeler (6-2, 180, G) and Cliff Windham (6-5, 200, F); juniors Eric Richardson (6-3, 185, G) and Terry Williams (6-8, 205, F) and sophomores Mark Farmer (6-11, 245, C), Bobby Lee Hurt (6-9, 240, C/F), Rex Jones (6-3, 185, G) and Ennis Whatley (6-3, 177, G).

Sanderson signed but two prep seniors, 6-3 Jim Farmer (35. pts, 15.6 reb) from Dothan, Ala. and 6-6 Alfonso Johnson (24.0 pts, 12.0 reb) of Birmingham, Ala.

Returning for the Tide is one of the top guards in the country in Whatley. The classy youngster had 178 assists last year and at the same time averaged 12.2 points per game. Ennis became a starter in his very first collegiate game and could not be pushed out, despite playing point guard, one of the toughest roles for a freshman player. He had perhaps, his best three games in the SEC Tournament when he scored 34 points, had 21 assists and 13 rebounds in that trio of games. He drew rave reviews from the fans and sportswriters and was chosen to the All-Tournament team. He should be on numerous All-America teams this year.

Davis joins Whatley as the only Tide players to start in every game last season. The senior off-guard led the team in steals with 44, averaged 11.4 points per game, 2.9 rebounds while hitting .489 from the field. He had a lot of playing time at small forward last year, and with the return of Adams, could be in that position again this year. Davis led the team in scoring on five occasions last year. Whatley and Davis should be the backcourt starters, while Hurt should fill the center slot.

The Tide's fourth leading scorer a year ago, Hurt should be able to step in and fill the shoes of departed Eddie Phillips. Although a starter in only eight games last year, he still averaged almost 26 minutes of playing time per game, giving him enough experience to step into a starter role this winter. Hurt had 45 blocked shots and hit for a career high 24 points against Delaware. He averaged 10.2 points per game, 5.5 rebounds and hit .618 percent from the field to lead the team in that category.

Also on hand for the center position will be 6-11 sophomore Mark Farmer who played in only eight games last year. But, Farmer will be looked upon this year to provide back-up for Hurt, and the lanky youngster has the raw tools. The forward positions will be up for grabs with Johnson, Williams and Windham the three players in contention. Windham should draw the nod at one forward, based on his play in 30 starts last year. He averaged 7.0 points and 3.3 rebounds, hit .563 percent from the field and led the team in free throw percentage with an .826 mark.

Also available will be Williams who had spot duty in 29 games last year, but no starts. He averaged 9.9 minutes a game, scoring 3.5 points and getting 2.1 rebounds. Johnson, a freshman from Birmingham Hayes High School, was a high school All-America and although only 190 pounds, could hone his skills enough to earn a starting berth and be a factor on the boards for the Tide.

A bevy of guards will be on hand, including Richardson, Jones, Wheeler and freshman Jim Farmer. Richardson can play either point or swing guard, and he played both in 30 games last year. He averaged 6.9 points and 2.0 rebounds and was second on the team in assists with 100.

Jones played in eight games last year, averaging 2.5 points, while Wheeler was in on 15 games and averaged 1.8 points. Farmer will likely be redshirted this season, but that decision has not been finalized.

UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA FOOTBALL LETTERMEN 1892 TO PRESENT

Following is a list of all-time Alabama football lettermen. Information listed should include, name, position, hometown (at that time), and years lettered. If a player earned first team All-America status, it is denoted with a ★ before his name. If he was All-Southern Conference (SC) or All-Southeastern Conference (SEC), it is listed after his name. The following information required many, many hours of research and digging, and the University is indebted to Mr. Jeff Coleman, the Alumni Office, the Gorgas Library and many individuals for providing assistance. We solicit corrections and additions, and please contact the Alabama Sports Information Office about any changes. Jack Perry, Assistant Athletic Director.

This is the twenty-fifth annual edition of the original "Top Twenty Coaches." The purpose of this project is to foster recognition of the most successful men in this rugged profession on a national level. The compilations are made each year by a simple, but proven, formula: The 20 major college head football coaches who have won the most games are ranked in the order of their winning percentages. They must have a winning record and it must include at least five years as head coach at a major college. Only the records established at four-year colleges are counted. To qualify for this 1982 listing a coach must have 68 or more victories for his career. This time there is a tie for 20th place in number of games won, at 68, so both coaches are included, a listing of 21.

FOOTBALL'S ORIGIN AT ALABAMA

"Mr. W. G. Little, of Livingston, Ala., was the first man to introduce football at the University. Mr. Little had been a student at Andover, Mass., and went to the University (of Alabama) carrying his uniform and a great bag of enthusiasm for the game in 1892. A number of students joined in with him in the season beginning in October of that year."—Crimson White (Student Paper), Nov. 25, 1926.

Alabama's first game was played in Birmingham on Friday afternoon, Nov. 11, 1892, at the old Lakeview Park. Opposition was furnished by a picked team from Professor Taylor's school and Birmingham high schools, with Alabama winning, 56-0. Early teams were a bit tougher than current squads, it seems, as the following afternoon Alabama played the Birmingham Athletic Club, losing 5-4 when Ross, of B. A. C., kicked a 65 yard field goal. Impossible though it may seem, this field goal was listed as a collegiate record at one time and Birmingham papers of the day featured its distance in writeups of the game.

The gridiron sport rapidly caught the students' fancy and the game became a favorite with University athletes. In 1896 the University's board of trustees passed a rule forbidding athletic teams from traveling off the campus. The following season only one game was played and in 1898 football was abandoned at Alabama. Student opposition to the ruling was so strong that the trustees lifted the travel ban and football was resumed in 1899, to continue without interruption until the first World War forced cancellation of the 1918 games.

Alabama first gained national recognition in 1922 when the University of Pennsylvania was defeated, 9-7, in Philadelphia. The following season Wallace Wade became head coach and in 1925 led the Crimson Tide to its first undefeated and untied season and its first Rose Bowl invitation. On Jan. 1, 1926, an unheralded, underrated team from Tuscaloosa came from behind to upset Washington State, 20-19, in the Rose Bowl and establish a precedent of colorful play that recent Crimson Tide teams have continued to uphold.

THE LAST TIME...

UA RETURNED A KICKOFF FOR A TD—Willie Shelby opened the second half with a 100-yard return against Kentucky in dedication game of Wildcats' Commonwealth Stadium in Lexington on Sept. 22, 1973. Tide trailed 14-0 at intermission and Shelby's return ignited 28-14 comeback win.

UA RETURNED A PUNT FOR A TD—Jeremiah Castille streaked 43 yards in the second quarter against Vanderbilt in Tuscaloosa on Sept. 27, 1980.

UA RETURNED AN INTERCEPTION FOR A TD—Benny Perrin grabbed a Vanderbilt pass at the Crimson Tide 28 and sped down the sideline 72 yards on Sept. 26, 1981, in Nashville. His return pushed Bama's lead to 16-7 in the second quarter and Alabama went on to win 28-7.

UA RECORDED A SAFETY—In the final minute of the 1982 Cotton Bowl game, Texas, protecting a 14-10 lead, took an intentional safety to avoid punting from their own endzone. Texas held the Tide following the free kick to record a 14-12 New Year's Day victory.

UA SHUT OUT AN OPPONENT—In downpour, Tide blanked Tennessee, 27-0, in Knoxville on regional TV on October 18, 1980. UA held Vols to five first downs and 59 yards total offense.

UA BLOCKED A PUNT FOR TD—E.J. Junior blocked it and Rickey Gilliland picked it up and ran 35 yards in third quarter against Missouri in Columbia on Sept. 16, 1978. The return put Bama back on top 24-20.

OPPONENT RETURNED A PUNT FOR A TD—Walter Dowsing of Mississippi State picked his way for 47-yards in third quarter of Nov. 4, 1972 game in Tuscaloosa.

OPPONENT RETURNED AN INTERCEPTION FOR A TD—Russ Calabrese of Missouri picked off a Jeff Rutledge pass and weaved his way 30-yards in Columbia on Sept. 16, 1978.

OPPONENT RECORDED A SAFETY—Tommy Tabor of Baylor tackled Walter Lewis in the end zone first quarter of January 1, 1981 Cotton Bowl game.

OPPONENT SHUT OUT ALABAMA—Notre Dame blanked Crimson Tide, 7-0, on National TV, Nov. 15, 1980, in Birmingham, pushing back several Tide scoring threats from inside the 10-yard line. Bama had a 53-game scoring streak snapped.
